CANBERRA, THURSDAY, 23RD MARCH.

[1950.]

PROCLAMATION

Commonwealth of Australia to wit.
W. J. McKELL
Governor-General.

By His Excellency the Governor-
General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia.

WHEREAS it is provided by section thirty J of the Crimes Act 1914-1946 that if at any time the Governor-General is of opinion that there exists in Australia a serious industrial disturbance prejudicing or threatening trade or commerce with other countries or among the States he may make a Proclamation to that effect:

Now I, William John McKell, the Governor-General aforesaid, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, am of opinion and do hereby proclaim that there exists in Australia a serious industrial disturbance prejudicing and threatening trade and commerce with other countries and among the States.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Commonwealth this twenty-third day of March, in the year of our (L.S.) Lord, One thousand nine hundred and fifty, and in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. A. SPICER
Attorney-General.

GOD SAVE THE KING!
