SCHOLARSHIPS AND STUDY OPPORTUNITIES FOR COMMONWEALTH OFFICERS.

THE Board notifies the following scholarship opportunities available to officers of the Commonwealth Service in 1965:—

UNIVERSITY FREE PLACES.

Two kinds of free places will be awarded to assist officers to undertake university study at undergraduate and graduate levels. (Commonwealth Scholarship holders should only apply for full-time free places. Cadets are not eligible.)

1. Part-time Free Places.

Part-time free places provide for part-time study in courses leading to a university degree or diploma in specified courses at all Australian universities.

Free places may also be awarded to graduates for part-time study towards a higher degree provided that the further study is appropriate to the department, e.g., Management, Administration, or other studies.

(Where remoteness from a university prevents an officer attending lectures, he may be awarded a free place to study externally at the nearest convenient university.)

ELIGIBILITY.

To be eligible an officer must—

(a) have completed at least three months' service;

(b) be qualified for admission to the university in the course which he desires to study; and

(c) be classified in the Third Division or be qualified for transfer to the Third Division.

Free places may be awarded at any stage of the course.

SELECTION.

Awards will be made by the Public Service Board after considering the recommendations of Selection Committees in each State.

BENEFITS.

A part-time free place covers fees for lectures, practical work, examinations and all statutory fees levied by the universities. However, it does not cover graduation fees. An officer awarded a part-time free place will, subject to departmental convenience, be permitted to attend lectures, practical work and examinations on the subjects of his course for up to five hours per week without loss of pay.

CONDITIONS.

The continuance of a free place will be subject to satisfactory progress during the course of study. In the event of examination failure the award will be reviewed to determine whether or not it should be withdrawn. Officers will be required to pay the fees for subjects being repeated. Officers should note that, in general, the Universities now require intending students to make some form of preliminary application. Each officer making an application for a free place should ensure that the preliminary application or enrolment is made at the appropriate time.

APPLICATIONS.

Application forms are available from Public Service Inspectors in each State or from the Secretary, Public Service Board, Canberra. Application forms should be lodged with the Public Service Inspector in the State in which the officer is employed or, if the officer is employed in Canberra, with the Secretary, Public Service Board, Canberra, on or before 30th November, 1964.

2. Full-time Free Places.

A limited number of full-time free places will be awarded to outstanding applicants.

Full-time free places provide for full-time study to complete any degree course or to obtain a degree with honours. Where two full-time years are required by the University as a condition of an honours degree an award may be made for a period of up to two academic years, subject to success in examinations each year.

SELECTION.

Awards will be made by the Public Service Board after considering the recommendations of the Selection Committees in each State.

BENEFITS.

A full-time free place covers fees for lectures, practical work, examinations and all statutory fees levied by the universities but it does not cover graduation fees. An officer awarded a full-time free place will receive full pay during his period of study and will be granted leave from his official duties.

CONDITIONS.

A full-time free place holder will be required to enter into an agreement with the Commonwealth to remain in the Service for a period of three years, if the award is for one year, and five years if the award is for two years, from the date of the last examination.

TENURE.

During tenure scholars are required to report to their departments at appropriate times. The scholar shall render a report on his work on completion of his course, together with a copy of his thesis and papers published during tenure.

APPLICATIONS.

Application forms are available from Public Service Inspectors in each State or from the Secretary, Public Service Board, Canberra. Application forms should be lodged with the Public Service Inspector in each State in which the officer is employed, or, if the officer is employed in Canberra, with the Secretary, Public Service Board, Canberra, on or before 30th November, 1964.

(g) Successful unmarried applicants, who are required to live away from home, may receive an allowance under Public Service Regulation 96.

9. Progress in Training.—Continuance of training will be subject to satisfactory completion of periodical practical, oral and written tests.
