OTHER ISSUES OF THE GAZETTE

Public Service issues contain notices concerning administrative matters, including examinations, vacancies, transfers and promotions within the Australian Public Service and the Services of the Australian Postal Commission and Australian Telecommunications Commission. These issues are published weekly at 10.30 a.m. on Thursday, and sold at $2.30 each plus postage or on subscription of $115.00 (50 issues), $59.00 (25 issues), or $30.25 (12 issues).

Special issues are made on urgent matters as required. Officers responsible for arranging the gazettal of urgent notices should refer to Gazette Office Circular of 18 April 1980 on this subject. Single copies are available on the day of issue and priced according to size, and they are also provided at no extra charge with weekly General issues. Special issues are not available on separate subscription.

Periodic issues contain lengthy notices of a non-urgent nature, including the following: Certificates of Australian Citizenship; Registered Tax Agents; Authorised Celebrants; Unclaimed deposits and moneys; Australian Public Service Conditions of Entry and Advancement; Appointments to the Australian Public Service; Holders of Import Licences and Tariff Quotas. Issues are made at irregular intervals as required, at individual prices according to size. Advice of availability is given in the General and Public Service issues immediately following the day of publication. Periodic issues are not available on subscription, but standing orders are accepted for all or selected issues.

Index issues contain references to a limited number of entries in certain sections of Public Service issues, and all entries in General issues except names in the Bankruptcy Act section. Index issues are published quarterly and sold at 25c each plus postage. They are supplied without charge to annual subscribers to the General issues, but are not otherwise available on subscription.

Delegate of the Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs

*Customs Act 1901NOTICE OF DETERMINATIONS UNDER PART XVI

THE Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs, the Honourable J. C. Moore, in pursuance of Section 273B (2) of the Customs Act 1901, notifies that determinations have been made under Part XVI of that Act, as appended in the Table hereto.

The Table specifies:

- (i) The tariff item normally applicable, except where a number of tariff items apply, in which case Var. (various) is stated;
- (ii) The kind(s) of goods to which the determination applies and, where applicable, the conditions specified in the determination;
- (iii) The date on or before which the goods shall be entered for home consumption, if such is a condition of the determination;
- (iv) The item, sub-item, paragraph or sub-paragraph, as the case may be, in Schedule 1, or the item in Schedule 2, to the Customs Tariff Act 1966, as proposed to be altered, which shall apply to the goods. Where 4 or more figures are shown it refers to Schedule 1 and where a 2 figure item is shown it is an item of Schedule 2;
- (v) The departmental file number (C).

All goods being machinery are, unless otherwise indicated, subject to the provisions of a direction (Separate Articles Direction) given under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 25 of the Customs Tariff Act 1966, as proposed to be altered.

Manufacturers who consider that they manufacture goods suitably equivalent to the goods described in the Table may apply to the Department, quoting the relevant file number, for consideration of revocation of the determination.

Prospective importers of goods may lodge a by-law application on the approved form, quoting the relevant file number, in respect of the desired concession. This does not necessarily mean that all goods covered by that description will obtain similar concessions. Prospective applicants must establish that suitably equivalent goods are not reasonably available from Australian manufacturers.

NOTICE OF DETERMINATIONS UNDER PART XVI

THE Minister of State for Business and Consumer Affairs, the Honourable J. C. Moore, in pursuance of Section 273B (2) of the Customs Act 1901, notifies that Determinations have been made under Part XVI of that Act, as appended in the Table hereto.

The Table specifies:

- (i) The Tariff item normally applicable;
- (ii) The kind(s) of goods to which the Determination applies and, where applicable, the conditions specified in the Determination;
- (iii) The commencing date of the Determination;
- (iv) The item in Schedules 1 or 2 to the Customs Tariff Act 1966 which shall apply to the goods. Where the item is shown in the form of 4 figures or more it is an item of Schedule 1 and where a 2 figure item is shown it is an item of Schedule 2;
- (v) The number of the Determination.

All goods being machinery are, unless otherwise indicated, subject to the provisions of Separate Articles Directions given under paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 25 of the Customs Tariff.

Each of the Determinations, the making of which is published in this notice, has been or is being included as a reference in the departmental publication 'Consolidated By-law References' and, while any such reference remains current, goods conforming to the description therein may be concessionally entered accordingly without prior application.

Copies of the Consolidated By-law References may be inspected at, or purchased from, the Department of Business and Consumer Affairs.

Manufacturers who consider that they manufacture goods suitably equivalent to the goods described in the Table may apply to the Department, quoting the relevant file number, for consideration of revocation of the Determination.

PROCEDURES FOR APPLICATION IN INVALIDITY CASES

Permanent Head to arrange medical examination

- 2 (1) Where an officer or employee has been absent on sick leave for a continuous period of 13 weeks and the officer or employee is likely to be substantially impaired, in other than a temporary manner, in his ability to perform his duties, the Permanent Head shall make arrangements for the officer or employee to be examined by a Medical Officer.
- (2) The Permanent Head shall arrange for the Medical Officer to be furnished with relevant information including:
- (a) details of the current duties and of the current job of the officer or employee and other factors associated with the duties or physical environment of his work;
 - (b) details of the officer's or employee's performance of those duties;
 - (c) details of the officer's or employee's sick leave record;
 - (d) any supporting material which the officer or employee wishes to be provided to the Medical Officer.
- (3) At a reasonable time prior to the examination the Permanent Head shall arrange for the officer or employee to be advised in writing of:
- (a) the purpose of the examination and the authority under which and the reason for which it has been required;
 - (b) the time at which, place where, and person, or the capacity of the person, by whom the examination is to be conducted.
- (4) The Permanent Head subject to clause 10 shall arrange for the information provided to the Medical Officer to be available to the officer or employee.

Conduct of Medical Examination and Report

- 3 (1) The Medical Officer shall examine the officer or employee and in accordance with this clause report to the Permanent Head on the medical condition of the officer or employee and on whether the officer or employee:
- (a) is fit to continue to perform his duties;
 - (b) is unfit to continue to perform those duties but is fit to perform other duties;
 - (c) is unfit to undertake any duties; or
 - (d) should be granted sick leave or granted further sick leave.
- (2) The Medical Officer shall have regard to all relevant factors including:

- (a) his assessment of the officer's or employee's medical condition;
- (b) the material submitted to him; and
- (c) such other specialist medical advice as he obtains in relation to the officer or employee.

- (3) Where the Medical Officer considers that an officer or employee is unfit to perform his present duties or is unfit to undertake any duties, the Medical Officer shall indicate his prognosis of the health of the officer or employee and shall state his reasons for this prognosis.
- (4) Where the Medical Officer considers the officer or employee is unfit to perform his present duties but is capable of performing other duties, the Medical Officer shall indicate any types of work or working situations from which the officer or employee is precluded because of his medical condition.
- (5) Where the Medical Officer considers the officer or employee should be granted further sick leave, the Medical Officer shall recommend the period after which the health of the officer or employee should be reviewed and, where possible, shall indicate whether any of the circumstances described in subparagraphs 1 (a), 1 (b) or 1 (c) may apply.
- (6) Where, at the end of the review period, or at an earlier time the Permanent Head considers it appropriate, the Permanent Head shall:
 - (a) arrange for further medical examination in accordance with sub-clause 3 (1);
 - (b) update the information provided to the Medical Officer in accordance with sub-clause 2 (2); and
 - (c) advise the officer or employee accordingly and, subject to clause 10, shall arrange for any additional or revised material provided to the Medical Officer to be available to the officer or employee.

Additional circumstances where Permanent Head to arrange medical examination

- 4 (1) Where an officer or employee, during any period of 26 weeks, has been absent on sick leave for a number of substantial periods which total more than 13 weeks and the officer or employee is likely to be substantially impaired, in other than a temporary manner, in his ability to perform his duties the Permanent Head may, having regard to the nature of the illness causing the absences, make arrangements for the officer or employee to be examined by a Medical Officer.
- (2) Where:
 - (a) an officer or employee forwards a certificate from a registered medical practitioner indicating that the officer or employee is unfit for his present duties or for any duties and that the medical practitioner's prognosis is that the health of the officer or employee is unlikely to improve significantly in the foreseeable future; or
 - (b) the Permanent Head has reason to believe that the health of an officer or employee could be substantially impairing, in other than a temporary manner, the ability of that officer or employee to perform his duties; the Permanent Head shall investigate the situation and shall make arrangements for the officer or employee to be examined by a Medical Officer.

Arrangements for Medical Examination in Additional Circumstances

- 5 (1) In relation to examinations by a Medical Officer referred to in clause 4 the Permanent Head shall:
 - (a) arrange for the Medical Officer to be furnished with the information required by sub-clause 2 (2); and
 - (b) arrange for the employee to be advised in accordance with sub-clause 2 (3) and arrange for information provided to the Medical Officer to be available to the officer or employee.
- (2) Where the officer or employee attends for a medical examination as a result of action by the Permanent Head under clause 4 the Medical Officer shall examine the employee in accordance with clause 3.

Action to be taken by Permanent Head on Medical Report

- 6 (1) On receipt of a Medical Officer's report in respect of an officer or employee referred to in clauses 2 or 4, the Permanent Head subject to clause 10, shall, inform the employee in writing of:
 - (a) the findings of the medical examination;
 - (b) any recommendation in the report; and
 - (c) any action the Permanent Head proposes to take arising from the report; and the officer or employee shall be given the opportunity:
 - (d) to discuss with the Permanent Head or his representative, the recommendation and any action proposed to be taken; and
 - (e) within 14 days of the Permanent Head informing the officer or employee in accordance with this sub-clause, to submit written comments on these matters.

- (2) Where, having considered the Medical Officer's report and any comments by the officer or employee on that report or on proposed actions and any other relevant circumstances, the Permanent Head considers that the officer or employee cannot reasonably be used so as to make efficient and economical use of his services in the Department for the reason specified in sub-paragraph 7 (1) (b) (ii) of the Act, the Permanent Head shall declare the officer or employee to be eligible for redeployment for that reason in accordance with the Act.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Useful employment to be provided for employees identified in accordance with the Act

- 7 (1) Where an officer or employee is declared to the Board to be eligible for redeployment, the Permanent Head shall, subject to sub-clause 7 (2), take all reasonable steps to ensure that the officer or employee is usefully employed in his Department pending action by the Board and in the event that an officer or employee cannot be usefully employed, the Permanent Head shall advise the Board accordingly.

- (2) Where the Permanent Head has declared an officer or employee to be eligible for redeployment for the reason specified in sub-paragraph 7 (1) (b) (ii) of the Act and he considers that there are no suitable duties available in the Department, the Permanent Head will report the circumstances to the Board.

Report by Permanent Head in relation to declared employees

- 8 (1) Where the Permanent Head declares an officer or employee eligible for redeployment in accordance with the Act in addition to such details as may be required by the Act the Permanent Head shall report to the Board giving the relevant details specified in this clause.
- (2) The relevant details in relation to an officer or employee declared in accordance with this notice are:
- (a) the Permanent Head's reason for making the declaration;
 - (b) personal details of the officer or employee including an outline of his experience and qualifications;
 - (c) the circumstances which preclude the redeployment of the officer or employee within the Department;
 - (d) any changes which may be about to occur in the Department which would significantly alter the circumstances referred to in paragraph (c);
 - (e) a copy of all material provided to the Medical Officer in respect of the officer or employee;
 - (f) a copy of the report of the Medical Officer and any other reports to which the Permanent Head had regard; and
 - (g) the Permanent Head's recommendation on whether the Board should exercise its powers under section 14 of the Act and his reasons for that recommendation.

Advice by Permanent Head to employee of declaration

- 9 (1) Where the Permanent Head declares an officer or employee eligible for redeployment he shall as soon as possible advise the officer or employee in accordance with the Act;
- (2) The Permanent Head shall, upon request of the officer or employee, subject to clause 10, provide the officer or employee with a copy of the report by the Permanent Head under clause 8.

Provision of information through Medical Practitioner

- 10 Where under this notice the Permanent Head is required to provide information to an officer or employee the Permanent Head may fulfill that requirement by providing such information to a medical practitioner nominated by the officer or employee (or in default of nomination by the officer or employee, by the Permanent Head) and where he does so he shall inform the officer or employee accordingly.

Action by Board to inform employee in relation to redeployment

- 11 (1) As soon as practicable after the declaration is in force the Board will investigate the likely prospects for redeployment of the officer or employee having regard to the principles for redeployment and will discuss with the officer or employee the results of its investigation.

- (2) In the course of the investigation the Board will seek relevant information from the Department and where appropriate the Medical Officer and shall arrange for the redeployment prospects and related matters to be discussed with the officer or employee.

Board to seek redeployment in Departments

- 12 (1) The Board will bring the declared officer or employee to the attention of Permanent Heads in whose Department redeployment might be possible and request that the officer or employee be considered for transfer to any vacancies having regard to the principles for redeployment.
- (2) Where the Board considers it is desirable the Board may seek from any Department referred to in sub-clause 12 (1) information in relation to the vacancies existing and the Permanent Head's reason for the placement of the officer or employee in any of those positions being inappropriate.

Board participation in selection process

- 13 (1) Where a Permanent Head proposes to fill a vacancy which in the opinion of the Board might be suitable for the placement of an officer or employee eligible for redeployment the Board may request that the officer or employee be considered for transfer to the vacancy.
- (2) Where interviews are to be conducted in relation to a vacancy referred to in sub-clause 13 (1) the Board may:
- (a) consult with the Permanent Head in relation to the selection criteria to be applied in relation to the vacancy; and
 - (b) nominate a representative to participate in the interview process.
- (3) Where the Permanent Head decides after considering that officer or employee, who has been declared eligible for redeployment, by comparison with other officers available for promotion or transfer that that officer or employee should not be transferred to a vacancy, the Permanent Head shall as soon as possible and before he transfers or promotes an officer or employee to the vacancy arrange for a report to be made to the Board on the circumstances including:
- (a) reasons for not transferring the officer or employee to the vacancy; and
 - (b) aspects relevant to the officer or employee which may require counselling of the officer or employee or which suggest other avenues for redeployment.

Further action by Board in relation to redeployment

- 14 (1) After receipt and consideration of the report referred to in sub-clause 13 (3), the Board may, having regard to the principles for redeployment, take such action as it considers desirable including:
- (a) arranging for the officer or employee to be counselled;
 - (b) seeking other opportunities for redeployment;

- (c) stopping the Department's proposed staffing action;
- (d) cancelling a provisional promotion;
- (e) requiring a new selection process;
- (f) transferring the declared officer or employee to the position; or
- (g) requiring that applicants be reassessed.
- (2) Where the Board proposes to redeploy under the Act an officer or employee without the officer's or employee's agreement it shall notify the officer or employee in writing of the action it proposes to take and provide the officer or employee with a reasonable opportunity to make any comments on the proposed action.

Notification of failure to redeploy

- 15 (1) Subject to sub-clause 14 (2), where the Board has not been able, in accordance with clauses 11-14 inclusive, to redeploy an officer or employee declared in accordance with the Act to be eligible for redeployment the Board will issue a certificate in accordance with paragraph 11 (6) (b) of the Act.
