THE Repatriation Review Tribunal is the final review authority within the Repatriation Determining System on decisions relating to claims for Repatriation pensions and consists of a President, a number of Deputy Presidents and a number of other members.

For the hearing and determination of applications for review of decisions on claims for Repatriation pensions a panel consists of the President or a Deputy President, a Services member, being a person appointed from the list of names of persons submitted by organisations representing returned soldiers throughout the Commonwealth, and one other member.

Applications are invited from persons interested in appointment as a full-time Deputy President in Sydney or Melbourne.

Salary for a Deputy President is determined by the Remuneration Tribunal and is currently $45 400 per annum, plus an allowance of $1250 per annum.

A Deputy President must be enrolled as a legal practitioner of the High Court, of another Federal Court, or of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or hold a degree of a University in the field of Law. No previous experience in Repatriation or associated legislation is necessary, but some experience in Administrative Law would be an advantage.
