  - (c) whether the circumstances are such that, if the Tribunal gave approval:
    - (i) the Tribunal would have reasonable grounds for believing that a person would be contravening s. 92 in circumstances which would constitute an offence against that section; (limitation of interests)

CUSTOMS ACT 1901

CUSTOMS TARIFF ACT 1982

BY-LAWS NO. 8740012, 8740013 and 8740014.

I, Colin F. Vassarotti, delegate of the Comptroller-General of Customs for the purposes of section 271 of the Customs Act 1901, hereby make the by-laws set out in the Schedule hereto.

In a by-law set out in the Schedule hereto -

'security' means that security shall be given to and to the satisfaction of the Collector and that the giving of such security is a condition subject to which that by-law item applies to the goods or the class or kind of goods so conditioned.

Unless the context otherwise requires, where a description of goods is specified in a by-law set out in the Schedule hereto, the goods that fall within that by-law by virtue of that description are such goods as would fall within that description if it were specified in the tariff classification in Schedule 3 to the Customs Tariff Act 1982, that applies to those goods.

Unless the context otherwise requires, any word or phrase used in a reference in a by-law set out in the Schedule hereto has the same meaning as if it were used in the tariff classification in Schedule 3 to the Customs Tariff Act 1982, that applies to those goods to which that reference in that by-law applies.

For the purposes of these by-laws, 'the Customs Tariff Act 1982' shall mean the Customs Tariff Act 1982, as amended from time to time.

THE SCHEDULE

BY-LAW NO. 8740012

Item 15
Part I of Schedule 4

1. This by-law may be cited as Customs By-law No. 8740012
2. This by-law shall take effect on and from 1 July 1987.
3. Item 15 in Part I of Schedule 4 to the Customs Tariff Act 1982 applies, subject to the next succeeding paragraphs, to goods that are specified in Column 1 of a Part of the Table hereunder and subject to such provisos (being conditions, qualifications, exceptions or exclusions), if any, as are set out in Column 2 of that Part and opposite those goods.
4. Goods to which this by-law applies shall be imported by an arriving person, that is to say a person who is -
  - (a) a passenger arriving in Australia from overseas; or
  - (b) a member of the crew of a ship or aircraft arriving from overseas, being a person who -
    - (i) is ordinarily domiciled in Australia; and
    - (ii) has not availed himself or herself of the concessions accorded under any of the provisions of this by-law in the 12 month period commencing on the first day of the year in which the goods are imported.
5. Subject to the next succeeding paragraph, Parts I and II of the Table hereunder apply in relation to goods that -
  - (a) are personal goods;
  - (b) are non-commercial goods; and
  - (c) except for the goods specified in paragraph 6(4), accompany the arriving person.

- (2) 'personal goods' means goods that -
  - (a) are the arriving person's property or, for the purposes of clause 4 of Part I of the Table hereunder, are owned by the migrant; and
  - (b) except in respect to goods specified in Part II of the Table hereunder, are suitable and are intended for the arriving person's own use.
- (3) 'non-commercial goods' means goods that -
  - (a) are not intended to be used by the arriving person for any commercial purpose, including sale, lease, hire or exchange; and
  - (b) are not goods that have been imported in such a quantity that, having regard to their nature or durability, that quantity represents a commercial quantity.
- (4) the following goods are specified for the purposes of paragraph 5(c) -
  - (a) goods specified in clauses (2), (3), (4), (5) or (8) of Part I of the Table hereunder; or
  - (b) goods brought to Australia by migrants.
- (5) in the calculation of the weight of tobacco products, 250 cigarettes are to be taken to equal 250 grams weight.
- (6) 'family' means a husband, wife, and, if any, their child who is, or children who are, aged less than 18 years.
- (7) 'used' in relation to the expression "personally owned and used" means available for use by the arriving person on a continuing basis in each country in which that person was residing on a long term basis.

Periods, which altogether total not more than 30 days, during which that vehicle was under repair or not used for motoring during travel by that person or a member of that person's family may be accepted as periods during which that vehicle was being used for motoring and available for such use by that person or a member of that person's family.
- (9) the expression "owned" appearing in sub-sub-paragraph 6(2)(a) above and clause (4) of Part I of the Table hereunder shall be taken to mean that the person in relation to which that expression is used:
  - (i) has title in that vehicle; or
  - (ii) is in the process of acquiring title in that vehicle under a bona fide hire purchase agreement or a leasing arrangement and that at the date of export no other person has lien in the vehicle.
- (10) for the purpose of proviso (1) to clause (4) of Part I of the Table hereunder the period of ownership referred to in proviso (1) shall be calculated from the date the vehicle imported into Australia by the migrant is registered overseas by that migrant or delivered for that migrant's use overseas, whichever is the later date, and shall cease on the date that migrant leaves for Australia or when that vehicle is delivered to the freight forwarder for shipment to Australia, whichever is the earlier date.
- (11) 'migrant', shall mean:
