Community Services and Health

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA*Health Insurance Act 1973STATEMENT UNDER SECTION 106AA

On the thirty-first day of July 1986, I, NEAL BLEWETT, Minister of State for Community Services and Health, made a determination under section 106 of the Health Insurance Act 1973 (the Act), in respect of Dr Michael David Readett of St Helen's Medical Suite, Macquarie Street, Hobart, Tasmania.

Particulars of Determination

A copy of the determination is at Attachment A.

Reasons for Determination

The determination was made by me on the basis of a report made under section 104 of the Act by the Medical Services Committee of Inquiry for the State of Tasmania, after its inquiry into the practice of Dr Readett.

The Committee was of the opinion that in respect of the patients under reference, certain of the services were excessive, in that they were not reasonably necessary for the adequate medical care of the patients concerned. The Committee arrived at this opinion by referring to the information before it and bringing to bear the knowledge and experience of its members.

Comments

The Government is seriously concerned by the practice of doctors like Dr Readett who provide services which are not reasonably necessary for the adequate medical care of the patients concerned. Excessive services are a drain on public funds and every effort is being made to reduce the magnitude of the problem.

Dated this 16th day of November 1987.

AUSTRALIAN BROADCASTING TRIBUNAL NOTICE OF INQUIRY

EXERCISE OF TRIBUNAL POWERS UNDER ANY OR ALL OF SECTIONS 85, 101 AND 119, OF THE BROADCASTING AND TELEVISION ACT 1942 AS A RESULT OF BREACHES OF THE STANDARDS AND THE ACT ARISING FROM BROADCASTS BY JOHN LAWS ON 2GB

The Australian Broadcasting Tribunal is inquiring into whether to exercise its powers under any or all of sections 85, 101 and 119 of the Broadcasting and Television Act 1942 (the Act) as a result of breaches of the Standards and the Act arising from broadcasts by John Laws on 2GB. Written submissions are invited.

The inquiry follows a decision that the John Laws programs broadcast by 2GB on eight days during the period 11 to 23 March 1987 were in breach of Radio Program Standard (RPS) 3, and therefore that 2GB was in contravention of section 99 (1A) of the Act.

The issues to be considered in the inquiry are:

1. Whether the Tribunal should exercise its power under section 85 to impose a condition or conditions on the license for 2GB requiring the adoption of management procedures with relation to 'talkback' shows and the provision of programs to other licensees in order to prevent further breaches of section 99 (1A);
2. Whether the Tribunal should exercise its power under section 101 to issue a written reprimand or admonishment to the licensee of 2GB;
3. If a written reprimand or admonishment is issued whether the Tribunal should direct the licensee of 2GB to publish the reprimand or admonishment, and if so, in what form and manner;
4. Whether the Tribunal should exercise its power under section 119 to issue directions:
 - (i) prohibiting John Laws from presenting programs in live broadcasts, or
 - (ii) imposing restrictions on the presenting by John Laws of programs in live broadcasts;

5. If the Tribunal issues a direction under section 119 for what period should it be determined to have effect.

A brief information paper is available from the Tribunal's Sydney office and its state offices. Submissions should reach the Tribunal's office at Tandem House, 76 Berry Street, North Sydney 2060, before 5.00 p.m. on Friday, 12 February 1988.
