AUSTRALIAN BROADCASTING TRIBUNAL Joined inquiry

GRANT OF A COMMERCIAL FM RADIO LICENCE TO SERVE THE AREA OF ALBANY WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Submissions invited

The Tribunal is holding a joined inquiry into whether to introduce a commercial FM radio service to Albany.

The Minister for Transport and Communications called for applications for an independent FM licence in a notice dated 25 January 1989. The Tribunal has received one application from Albany FM Pty Ltd.

At the same time an application under subsection 82A (1) of the Broadcasting Act 1942 (the Act) for the grant of a supplementary licence was lodged with the Minister for Transport and Communications by the licensee of commercial radio station 6VA Albany. The Minister has referred this application to the Tribunal.

Issues: The Tribunal will consider whether it would be in the public interest to grant an additional independent service in this area or grant a supplementary licence to 6VA.

In relation to the application for an additional independent licence, the Tribunal must consider:

- (a) whether the applicant meets the statutory criteria set out in the Act, including its:
  - i) fitness and propriety to hold the licence; and
  - ii) financial, technical and management capabilities necessary to provide an adequate and comprehensive service;
- (b) the need to avoid undue concentration of influence, whether direct or indirect, on the applicant and on companies holding other broadcasting licences in the area;
- (c) the commercial viability of existing radio and television broadcasting services in the Albany area; and
- (d) whether the Tribunal should refuse to grant a licence.

In relation to the application for a supplementary licence grant the Tribunal must consider:

- (a) the statutory criteria in (a) above;
- (b) the commercial viability of existing services and the impact on this of a new independent radio service;
- (c) the commercial viability of any additional, independent radio service;
- (d) the adequacy and comprehensiveness of the new service; and
- (e) if the supplementary licence were granted, whether there would be undue concentration of ownership and control of the media in the service area.

(For greater detail concerning the criteria for licence grants, consult the Broadcasting Act 1942 and especially section 83)

Inquiry file

A copy of the inquiry file, which contains both copies of the applications and other related documents, is available for inspection at the following locations:

AMENDMENT OF DETERMINATION

NO. / OF 1989

I AMEND the Stamp Duties (Marketable Securities) Determination
1987 notice of which was published in the Gazette on 31 July 1987
(Gazette No S193) by inserting after paragraph 5 the following:

Transfer of unlisted Marketable Securities

6. Notwithstanding paragraphs 4 and 5 the determined amount of stamp duty for the purposes of section 44 or 50 of the Ordinance is, in respect of the transfer of a marketable security that is not listed for quotation in the official list of an Australian stock exchange or a prescribed stock exchange, the sum of:

- a) the determined amount of stamp duty that would have been payable for the purposes of section 17 of the Ordinance with respect to the transfer of any interest in land in the Territory held by the company or unit trust which issued the marketable security on the assumption that that interest had been transferred on the date on which the marketable security was transferred; and
- b) 15 cents for each $25 or part of $25 of the unencumbered value of the marketable security.

For the purposes of paragraph (a) it shall be assumed that the value of the interest in the land bears the same proportion to the value of the company's or trust's interest as the marketable security bears to the total number of marketable securities issued in the company or unit trust.

For the purposes of paragraph (b) the unencumbered value of the marketable security shall be calculated disregarding the value of the company's or unit trust's interest in any land in the Territory.
