ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES UNDER THE ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION
(IMPACT OF PROPOSALS) ACT 1974

EXEMPTION AND SUMMARY OF REASONS

EXEMPTION

PURSUANT to paragraph 11.4 of the Administrative Procedures under the Environment Protection (Impact of Proposals) Act 1974, I, Roslyn Joan Kelly, Minister of State for the Arts, Sport, the Environment, Tourism and Territories, having taken into account the matters set out in paragraph 11.3.1 of those Administrative Procedures, hereby exempt from the requirements of paragraph 8.2(c) of those Administrative Procedures:

The proposed action being the construction of the third runway at Sydney (Kingsford-Smith) Airport, except to the extent that the proponent, the Federal Airports Corporation, will:

- (1) provide a copy of the final environmental impact statement to any Department or authority of Australia, State or Territory or authority of a State or Territory, and local authority that made written submissions under paragraph 6.3.1 or 6.4;
- (2) provide a copy of the final environmental impact statement to any person or body who made a major submission under paragraph 6.3.1;
- (3) write to those who made a submission but not a major submission, under paragraph 6.3.1, advising of the release of the final environmental impact statement and that a copy can be obtained from the Corporation free of charge on request;
- (4) place an advertisement in the following newspapers:

The Australian
The Sydney Morning Herald
Financial Review
The Telegraph Mirror
The Glebe and Western Weekly
City Independent Newspaper
Drummoyne-Five Dock District News
St George & Bankstown Voice Newsweek
Maroubra Southern Weekly
Northern Herald

notifying that copies of the final environmental impact statement are available free of charge to those who made submissions on the draft environmental impact statement should they request a copy.

Dated this 15th day of August 1991

ROSLYN JOAN KELLY

Minister of State for the Arts,
Sport, the Environment, Tourism and Territories

SUMMARY OF REASONS

My reason for granting the above exemption is that it would be contrary to the public interest for the Federal Airports Corporation to incur the cost of providing a copy of the final environmental impact statement to all those who made a submission regardless of whether the recipient wanted a copy, and I am satisfied that the actions described in the exemption are all that is reasonably necessary to ensure that those who made a submission will have an opportunity to obtain a copy of the final environmental impact statement.

Attorney-General

THESE ARRANGEMENTS are made in pursuance of section 39 of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia between HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL of the COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, and HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR of the STATE OF NEW SOUTH WALES, acting with the advice of the Executive Council of the State of New South Wales.

WHEREAS:

- A. Sub-section 39(1) of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia provides that the Governor-General may make arrangements with the Governor of a State or the Administrator of the Northern Territory with respect to the administration of that Act, including arrangements for the performance of the functions of a Magistrate under that Act by a Magistrate of that State.
- B. It is desired to make arrangements for the administration of that Act in the State of New South Wales including measures for the efficient making, and carrying out, of requests for mutual assistance of the kind for which that Act provides.
- C. It is intended that the Governor-General will make arrangements similar to these with the other States and with the Northern Territory of Australia.
- D. The parties to this Arrangement have agreed to co-operate and consult with each other to ensure the implementation and effective enforcement of that Act:

NOW, pursuant to section 39 of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 of the Commonwealth Parliament, IT IS HEREBY ARRANGED AS FOLLOWS.

Interpretation

1. In these Arrangements:

- (a) "Act" means the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia;
- (b) "Attorney-General" means the Attorney-General for the Commonwealth and includes any other Minister of the Commonwealth acting, for the time being, for and on behalf of the Attorney-General;
- (c) "Central Office" means the Attorney-General's Department, Canberra, or, if another authority is designated as the Central Office pursuant to a mutual assistance treaty between Australia and a foreign country, that other authority but only in relation to matters arising under these Arrangements in respect of that country;
- (d) "Committee" means the Committee established by paragraph 4;
- (e) "Commonwealth" means the Commonwealth of Australia;
- (f) "Liaison Officer" in relation to the State of New South Wales means the Liaison Officer appointed in respect of that State pursuant to paragraph 17;

3.

- (g) "Other Arrangements" mean arrangements similar to these Arrangements which the Governor-General has made or intends to make with the other States or with the Northern Territory of Australia;
- (h) "State" means a State of the Commonwealth and includes the Northern Territory; and
- (i) "State Minister" means, in relation to the State of New South Wales, the Minister of that State responsible for the matters dealt with in these Arrangements and includes any other Minister of the State acting, for the time being, for and on behalf of that Minister.

2. Except where defined in these Arrangements, words and expressions defined in the Act shall have the same meaning when used in these Arrangements as they have in the Act.

3. Nothing in these Arrangements will prevent the provision or obtaining of international assistance in criminal matters otherwise than as mentioned in the Act or otherwise than pursuant to a treaty or other arrangement between Australia and a foreign country.

National Consultative Committee

4. There is established for the purposes of these Arrangements and the Other Arrangements a body to be known as the National Consultative Committee to which each of the Attorney-General and the State Minister for New South Wales and the other State Ministers under Other Arrangements will appoint one member. A member may, at any time, authorize in writing another person to represent him at a meeting of the National Consultative Committee where that member is unable to attend that meeting.

5. The Committee will meet:

- (a) at least once each year;
- (b) on such additional occasions as the Attorney-General or any State Minister may request by notice in writing to the other Ministers; and
- (c) at such other times as the Committee may decide.

6. The function of the Committee is to consider:

- (a) issues and procedures relating to the Act, these Arrangements and Other Arrangements;
- (b) matters referred to it by the Attorney-General, the State Minister or any other State Minister under Other Arrangements; and
- (c) the Commonwealth program for negotiation of mutual assistance treaties and other arrangements.

7. Subject to these Arrangements the Committee is responsible for the overall conduct of its operations including the making of rules for its practices and procedures and for the calling and conduct of meetings.

8. In order that the Committee may effectively consider the Commonwealth program for mutual assistance under the Act, the Attorney-General will ensure where possible that the Committee is informed in reasonable time:

- (a) of proposals relating to the program for negotiation of mutual assistance treaties; and
- (b) of proposals to apply the Act to specified foreign countries pursuant to section 7(2)(b) of the Act.

9. The Commonwealth will continue to advise the States of its general programs for the negotiation of treaties, in accordance with practices already in force in that regard.

10. The Committee will report on the exercise of its functions at least once each year to the Standing Committee of Attorneys-General and the Australian Police Ministers Council or otherwise as requested by those bodies and at such other times as the Committee sees fit.

Requests for Assistance in Australia

11. The Attorney-General will arrange that, where:

- (a) a foreign country makes a request pursuant to the Act for assistance of a kind referred to in the Act; and
- (b) the carrying out of that request may involve the jurisdiction, or affect the interest, of the State of New South Wales, the Central Office will, before any action is taken under the Act in relation to that request, inform the Liaison Officer of that State of that request at the earliest practicable stage after receipt by the Commonwealth of the request and consult with that Liaison Officer in regard to that request as soon as convenient thereafter.

12. Without limiting the requirements of paragraph 11, the Attorney-General will, in considering a request described in paragraph 11 pursuant to the Act, ensure that:

- (a) the Liaison Officer is consulted by Central Office before any decision is taken to refuse that request pursuant to section 8 of the Act on grounds relating to the interests of that State; and

- (b) where a request (if granted on conditions) would be carried out within the jurisdiction of the State of New South Wales or would affect its interests, there is consultation by Central Office with the Liaison Officer as to the form and nature of those conditions before any decision is taken pursuant to the Act to grant that request subject to conditions.

For these purposes, the Attorney-General will, in relation to the request, take particular account of the relevance to the State of the request in regard to the matters specified in paragraphs 8(2)(d) and (f) of the Act.

13. In any case where the interests of a foreign country are to be represented in an Australian court in matters arising under the Act the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions shall represent those interests in that court.

14. Subject to paragraphs 13 and 16 where the Attorney-General agrees to provide assistance to a foreign country in response to a request made by it pursuant to the Act in relation to an offence, the action necessary to provide that assistance will, if the offence would in Australia be regarded as an offence against a law of:

- (a) the Commonwealth, be carried out by the appropriate authorities of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the State of New South Wales, be carried out by the appropriate authorities of that State subject to paragraph 15.

15. where:

- (a) in accordance with paragraph 14 the authorities of the State of New South Wales would be expected to carry out the action necessary to meet a request; but 7.

- (b) the State Minister has made representations to the Attorney-General in the consultations under paragraph 11 that the request should be refused, then the Attorney-General will not require that State to carry out the necessary action and, if the State refuses to, or does not within a reasonable time, carry out that action the authorities of the Commonwealth will carry out that action.

16. Where, in accordance with paragraph 14, the authorities of the Commonwealth, or of the State of New South Wales, would be expected to carry out the action necessary to meet a request, those authorities may, through the Central Office and the Liaison Officer, arrange that the action will be carried out by the authorities of, respectively, the State, or by the Commonwealth.

State Liaison Officers

17. The State Minister will appoint a Liaison Officer to liaise, for the purposes of these Arrangements, with:

- (a) the Central Office;
- (b) the State Liaison Officer of each other State which may participate under Other Arrangements; and
- (c) other agencies as appropriate, in relation to the making and carrying out of requests made pursuant to the Act.

18. The Liaison Officer will be the principal co-ordinator, within the State of New South Wales, of matters arising under these Arrangements and in particular will:

- (a) receive from Central Office all requests made by a foreign country pursuant to the Act, that concern that State;
- (b) receive from Central Office notice of other requests of that kind for which action is to be carried out by Commonwealth authorities in the State;
- (c) ensure that requests referred to in sub-paragraph (a) are carried out by appropriate State authorities in accordance with the Act;
- (d) pass to Central Office requests by the State for mutual assistance by foreign countries, in accordance with the Act; and
- (e) liaise with the appropriate Commonwealth authorities whenever arrangements of the kind referred to in paragraph 16 are contemplated.

Resolution of Disputes

19. The Central Office and the Liaison Officer will attempt to resolve by consultation any dispute as to whether a request made by a foreign country pursuant to the Act should be carried out by authorities of the Commonwealth or of the State of New South Wales. Should the dispute not be resolved within a reasonable time by that means, the matter will be referred to the Committee. If the matter cannot be resolved by the Committee within a reasonable time, the Attorney-General and the State Minister, together with any other relevant Ministers of the Commonwealth and the State, will jointly determine the matter.

20. Where the Attorney-General and the State Minister are unable to agree on the settlement of a dispute referred to in paragraph 19 and the Attorney-General determines that the request should be granted then the authorities of the Commonwealth will carry out the necessary action in regard to the request.

Costs and Resources

21. Where a request is made pursuant to the Act by the Commonwealth for itself or on behalf of the State of New South Wales to a foreign country, the Commonwealth or the State, whichever is seeking the assistance, will meet the costs of:

- (a) translation services;
- (b) travel by witnesses, foreign prisoners and custodial officers to and from Australia and that foreign country; and
- (c) board and lodging and sustenance of those witnesses, foreign prisoners or custodial officers while they are in Australia.

Where such a request is made by a foreign country, that country would meet those costs in relation to that request.

22. Subject to paragraph 13, the responsibility for costs incurred in Australia in carrying out a request made by a foreign country pursuant to the Act will be borne according to the nature of the offence concerned. If the offence is of a kind that, if it were committed in Australia, would be an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, the Commonwealth will meet those costs; if the offence would be an offence against the law of the State of New South Wales and the action to carry out the request is taken by the authorities of that State, the State will meet those costs.

23. Where, in accordance with paragraph 22, the State of New South Wales would be required to meet the costs incurred in carrying out a request made by a foreign country but that State considers that that requirement imposes or is likely to impose an undue burden on its financial, personnel or other resources, the Central Office and the Liaison Officer will, at the request of the State, seek to resolve the matter in consultation. In resolving the matter, consideration will extend to the question of recommending to the Attorney-General refusal of the request concerned pursuant to paragraph 8(2)(f) of the Act, reimbursing the State for the cost of carrying out the request, and carrying out the request either by Commonwealth agencies under an arrangement pursuant to paragraph 16, or by other assistance by the Commonwealth to the State.

24. If in the consultations referred to in paragraph 23, the Central Office and the State of New South Wales do not resolve the difficulties of the State in regard to costs relating to a request, the matter will be referred if appropriate to the Committee. If not then resolved, the Attorney-General and the State Minister will arrange for consultations between relevant Ministers of the Commonwealth and the State to determine the matter.

Rotation of Officers

25. The Attorney-General and the State Minister may arrange for the officers of the Central Office and of the appropriate authorities of the State of New South Wales to exchange duties from time to time, to the effect that officers of the State shall gain experience in the functions of the Central Office that relate to these Arrangements and officers of the Central Office shall gain experience in operations in the State relevant to those functions.

Review of Arrangements

26. The Attorney-General and the State Minister will arrange for the operation of these Arrangements to be reviewed not later than the expiration of 3 years after the date on which these Arrangements are made.

27. Whenever the Attorney-General or the State Minister requests consultations to discuss methods whereby the implementation of these Arrangements may be improved, each Minister may arrange for representatives to participate in discussions for that purpose.

Termination

28. The State Minister may give to the Attorney-General at any time notice that the State of New South Wales will no longer participate in the procedures set out in these Arrangements. Where such notice is given, it will take effect 6 months after the date on which it is given. These Arrangements will, however, continue to apply in relation to that State after a notice of termination is given by that State, in respect of any action under these Arrangements that was commenced or required to be taken prior to the expiry of that period of 6 months. At the expiry of that notice these Arrangements will continue to operate in respect of the Commonwealth and other States which are participating under Other Arrangements.

29. The Attorney-General may, at any time, give to the State Minister notice of termination of these Arrangements. Where such notice of termination is given it will take effect 6 months after the date on which it is given. These Arrangements will, however, continue to apply in respect of any action under these Arrangements that was commenced or required to be taken prior to the expiry of that period of 6 months notice.

Health, Housing and Community Services

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

HEALTH INSURANCE ACT 1973

Statement Under Section 106AA

On the sixteenth day of November 1987, the then Minister for Community Services and Health, the Honourable Dr Neal Blewett, determined under section 106 of the Health Insurance Act 1973, that Dr Thung Sing TIONG of 95 Sydney Street, Mackay in Queensland, provided excessive services and that he be reprimanded and repay $760.65 to the Commonwealth of Australia for services found to be not medically necessary for the adequate medical care of the patients concerned.

Following a review of that decision, the benefits to be repaid have been reduced to $328.25 and the reprimand affirmed.

Dr Tiong was also the subject of a similar determination in 1981 whereby he had to repay $39,418.86 in medical benefits.

Reasons for Determination

The determination was made on the basis of recommendations, made under section 105 of the Health Insurance Act 1973, by the Medical Services Committee of Inquiry for the State of Queensland, after its inquiry into the practices of Dr Tiong. The Committee consisted of four medical practitioners appointed after consultation with the Australian Medical Association.

On taking oral and written evidence at hearings over four days, the Committee concluded that Dr Tiong had provided excessive services, should repay benefits and that he should be reprimanded for unnecessarily subjecting his patients to tomography (C.A.T.) scans, head X-rays and audiograms.

As was his right Dr Tiong requested a review of the determination by the Medical Services Review Tribunal. The Tribunal, which consists of a legally qualified President and two medical members, affirmed that Dr Tiong should be reprimanded but reduced the benefits repayable to $328.25.

Dr Tiong appealed the order of the Tribunal to the Federal Court of Australia which dismissed the appeal with costs. He then appealed to the Full Bench of the Federal Court and finally to the High Court of Australia. Both Courts dismissed the appeals with costs.

The review of the initial decision by Courts to the highest level vindicates the Committee of Inquiry process as a just and fair means of inquiring into the problem of excessive servicing by practitioners. I thank the Committee for the work undertaken in their inquiry.

Comments

The Government is seriously concerned by the practice of doctors like Dr Tiong who provide services which are not reasonably necessary for the adequate medical care of the patients concerned. Excessive services are a drain on public funds and every effort is being made to reduce the magnitude of the problem.
