ANTI-DUMPING AUTHORITY

FINAL FINDING ON DISPOSABLE PLASTIC CUTLERY IN BULK PACKS FROM HONG KONG, THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND THAILAND

The Anti-Dumping Authority has completed its inquiry into exports of disposable plastic cutlery in bulk packs from Hong Kong, the People's Republic of China and Thailand.

The Authority found that:

- cutlery from Hong Kong was exported to Australia at dumped prices;
- cutlery from China and Thailand was not exported to Australia at dumped prices;
- the Australian industry has suffered material injury;
- the injury suffered by the Australian industry was not caused by dumped imports from Hong Kong; and
- there is not a likely threat of material injury from exports of cutlery at dumped prices from Hong Kong.

The Minister for Small Business, Customs and Construction has accepted the Authority's recommendation that anti-dumping action not be taken against exports of disposable plastic cutlery in bulk packs by certain exporters from Hong Kong, the People's Republic of China and Thailand.

Copies of the non-confidential version of the Authority's report No. 143 will be available in due course. Inquiries for copies should be addressed to the Information Officer, Margaret McLeod, at the Authority by telephoning (06) 276 1742.

Dated 2 February 1995

MANAGING DIRECTOR OF THE
AUSTRALIAN FISHERIES MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY

A. DECLARATION OF INTENT

AFMA intends to grant the following statutory fishing rights in relation to fishing in the Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery:

Statutory Fishing Rights that will entitle a person to fish for Southern Bluefin Tuna and Northern Bluefin Tuna in the Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery, managed under the Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery Management Plan 1995.

B. INVITATION TO APPLY

Persons wishing to apply to be registered as an eligible person for the grant of SFRs are invited to complete an:

"Application to Register as Eligible for the Grant of Statutory Fishing Rights
Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery"

and return the completed application to the address specified on the application form by 5.00 pm on the closing date of 5.00 pm on Friday 12 March 1995.

C. INFORMATION

The following information is provided in accordance with section 25 of the Act.

Definitions

1. In this notice, unless the contrary intention appears:

"Act" means the Fisheries Management Act 1991;

"area of the fishery" means the SBT Fishery area as defined in the Plan;

"eligible person" means a person who is registered as an eligible person for the grant of a SFR;

"fishery" means the Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery as defined in the Plan;

"former plan" means the Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery Management Plan made under the Fisheries Act 1952, both of which will expire at the end of 2 February 1995;

"Plan" means the Southern Bluefin Tuna Fishery Management Plan 1995;

"SFR" means a statutory fishing right for the fishery; and

"SBT" means fish of the species Thunnus maccoyii (Castelnau) or Thunnus thynnus.

Fishing Activities

2. The fishing activities that will be authorised by the SFRs to be granted under the Plan are, in the area of the fishery:

(a) fishing for SBT using a boat;

(b) the taking of a particular amount of SBT using the boat; and

(c) the processing and carrying of SBT on the boat and transshipping of SBT from the boat.

The amount of SBT that may be taken under a SFR is a portion of the national catch allocation determined by AFMA in accordance with the Plan.

How SFRs will be granted

3. The grant of the SFRs is to be made by making the SFRs available to persons who:
 - (a) are registered as eligible for this purpose in accordance with the procedures specified in the Act and the Plan and described below; and
 - (b) who then apply for one or more of the SFRs.

Procedures for selecting eligible persons and granting of SFRs

4. The full particulars of the procedures to be followed for selecting the persons to whom the grant of a SFR will be made available under section 29 of the Act are as follows:
 - (a) AFMA will advertise (by means of this notice) for applications to be made by persons wishing to be registered as eligible under section 26 of the Act for the grant of SFRs. Any person may apply for registration. There is no fee payable in relation to such an application. Applications must be received by AFMA by 5.00 pm on the closing date of Friday 12 March 1995. Late applications will only be accepted if the applicant demonstrates to the satisfaction of AFMA that the application was made after the closing date because of exceptional extenuating circumstances.
 - (b) AFMA will consider the applications it receives against the eligibility criteria set out in clause 14 of the Plan and reproduced below:

" Conditions for registration of eligibility for statutory fishing rights -
section 26 of the Act

14.1 The conditions for registration of a person as an eligible person are:

- (a) that the person's application for registration is made to AFMA in the form approved by AFMA within the period specified in the notice in relation to the SBT Fishery published under section 24 of the Act [this period is specified in this notice to end at 5.00 pm on the closing date of Friday 12 March 1995]; and
- (b) that the person was, immediately before the end of 2 February 1995, a unit holder (other than by way of lease) under the former plan.

14.2 In spite of subclause 14.1, if a person:

- (a) was, immediately before the end of 2 February 1995, a unit holder (other than by way of lease) under the former plan; and
- (b) applies to AFMA for registration in the form approved by AFMA after the period referred to in paragraph 14.1 (a); and
- (c) demonstrates to the satisfaction of AFMA that the application was made after that period because of exceptional extenuating circumstances;

AFMA may regard the person as satisfying paragraph 14.1 (a)."

- (c) AFMA will register as an eligible person each applicant who satisfies the eligibility criteria, as required by subsection 26 (2) of the Act.
- (d) AFMA will notify each applicant in writing of its decision to register or not to register that person as an eligible person, as soon as possible after it makes its decision, as required under subsection 26 (3) the Act. As required under section 23 of the Act, AFMA will also publish a notice in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, setting out the name of the person or persons to whom the fishing rights are to be granted and a summary of the fishing rights to be granted to each such person.
- (e) If an eligible person requests AFMA to grant the SFRs within the relevant period described in paragraph (f) below, then AFMA will grant the SFRs to the person, in accordance with clause 15 of the Plan and as required by section 31 of the Act.
- (f) The periods referred to in paragraph (e) above are as follows:
 - generally - within 30 days of notification of AFMA's decision to register the person as an eligible person; or
 - if the request for the grant of SFRs is not made within the 30 day period - within 30 days of a reminder notice from AFMA; or
 - if it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of AFMA that there are extenuating circumstances that caused the eligible person to fail to make the request by the end of the second period described above - within 14 days after AFMA giving notice requiring that the request be made and cause be shown as to why the request is late.
- (g) If an eligible person does not request AFMA to grant that person SFRs, or, if necessary, show cause by the time that the relevant period referred to in paragraph (f) above expires, then under subclause 15.5 of the Plan, that person ceases to be an eligible person.

- (h) On the request of an eligible person made within the relevant period referred to in paragraph (f) above, AFMA will grant to the person the number of SFRs calculated in accordance with the formula set out in clause 16 of the Plan and reproduced below:

$$1000 \times \text{UFC}$$

where "UFC" is the number of units of fishing capacity held (other than by way of lease), immediately before the end of 2 February 1995, by the person as a unit holder under the former plan.

Duration of SFRs

5. A SFR will be in force for the duration of the Plan, unless that SFR is sooner surrendered under subsection 22(6) of the Act or cancelled by AFMA under section 39 of the Act.

Amount of Charge

6. There is no charge on the grant of SFRs for the purposes of the Statutory Fishing Rights Charge Act 1991.

Rights of Review

7. The right of review available to persons in relation to the grant of, or refusal to grant, a SFR is as follows:

- (a) Under subsections 165(1A) and 142(2), there is no right to internal review by AFMA or review by the Statutory Fishing Rights Allocation Review Panel or the Administrative Appeals Tribunal available to persons in relation to the first decisions made by AFMA to:

- register persons as eligible persons; or
- grant SFRs.

- (b) In relation to subsequent decisions about the grant of, or refusal to grant, a SFR by AFMA, the following rights of review are available:

- For a decision about registration of a person as an eligible person - the person may, if dissatisfied with the decision, request AFMA to reconsider the decision under section 165 of the Act. The person has 21 days after being notified of the decision to make the request. The person may ask AFMA to extend the 21 day period, but only if the person does so before the 21 day period itself expires. Once the person requests the reconsideration, AFMA has 45 days to reconsider its decision and notify the person in writing of its final decision, giving reasons.

If the person is dissatisfied with the review, the person may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for further review. The person must apply to the Tribunal within 14 days of receiving notice of AFMA's final decision, unless the Tribunal grants the person an extension of time to apply.

- For a decision about a person to whom the grant of SFRs is to be made - any person who is an eligible person and who is dissatisfied with the decision may request the Statutory Fishing Rights Allocation Review Panel to review the decision under section 143 of the Act. The person has 14 days after being notified of the decision to make the request. The Panel must then review the decision and notify the person (among others) of its decision, giving reasons.

An appeal lies to the Federal Court of Australia, on a question of law, from the decision of the Panel. The appeal must be instituted within 28 days of receiving the notification of the Panel's decision, unless the Court grants the person an extension of time to apply.

Other information

9. Prospective applicants should note that:

- (a) the Plan will commence on 3 February 1995;
 - (b) the Plan will cover fishing for Southern Bluefin Tuna and for Northern Bluefin Tuna in the area of the fishery. SFRs are required to be held when fishing for either species or both of them;
 - (c) the Plan will give AFMA a discretionary power to make "directions", which if made could place restrictions on any aspect of fishing in the fishery. All SFRs would be subject to directions made under the Plan by AFMA;
 - (d) if the holder of a SFR intends to use a boat to fish in the fishery, the boat must be nominated in relation to the SFR on the Register of Statutory Fishing Rights. The Register is administered by AFMA;
 - (e) the holder of a SFR may apply in the approved form to AFMA to lease or transfer that SFR to another person;
 - (f) holders of SFRs will be required under the Fisheries Management Regulations to report catch information to AFMA; and
 - (g) a management levy will be payable on SFRs later in 1995 and annually thereafter. The fishery will be managed on a 100 per cent cost recovery basis for the foreseeable future.
