The National Occupational Health and Safety Commission Act 1985

Section 38(1)

NATIONAL MODEL REGULATIONS FOR THE CONTROL OF SCHEDULED CARCINOGENIC SUBSTANCES [NOHSC:1011(1995)]

NATIONAL CODE OF PRACTICE FOR THE CONTROL OF SCHEDULED CARCINOGENIC SUBSTANCES [NOHSC:2015(1995)]

Pursuant to sub-section 38(1) of the National Occupational Health and Safety Commission Act 1985 (Cwlth), the National Occupational Health and Safety Commission hereby gives notice that it has declared National Model Regulations for the Control of Scheduled Carcinogenic Substances [NOHSC:1011(1995)] and a National Code of Practice for the Control of Scheduled Carcinogenic Substances [NOHSC:2015(1995)].

TITLE

These national model regulations and this national code of practice may be cited as the National Model Regulations for the Control of Scheduled Carcinogenic Substances [NOHSC:1011(1995)] and the National Code of Practice for the Control of Scheduled Carcinogenic Substances [NOHSC:2015(1995)], respectively.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of these national model regulations is to eliminate or minimise the risk of adverse health effects due to exposure to a scheduled carcinogenic substance in the workplace by:

- (a) providing for the prohibition of certain uses of carcinogenic substances listed in Schedule 1;
- (b) requiring employers to ensure that an employee's exposure to a scheduled carcinogenic substance is eliminated or minimised through appropriate assessment, control, monitoring and health surveillance procedures;
- (c) requiring employers and suppliers to notify their use of a scheduled carcinogenic substance to the relevant public authority;
- (d) providing information on assessment, control, monitoring and health surveillance procedures appropriate to the notified carcinogenic substance; and
- (e) requiring suppliers, employers and their employees to comply with these national model regulations.

The purpose of the National Code of Practice for the Control of Scheduled Carcinogenic Substances [NOHSC:2014(1995)] is to provide practical guidance on how to comply with the prohibition and notification requirements for scheduled carcinogenic substances. It also explains the specific requirements for assessment and control of risks arising from work with scheduled carcinogenic substances, and the specific requirements for record keeping.

HOW COPIES MAY BE OBTAINED

Copies of the national model regulations and the national code of practice may be purchased from Commonwealth Government Bookshops in all capital cities as well as Albury and Townsville.
