OPINION ON CATEGORY OF BROADCASTING SERVICE

We have considered the information provided by Optus Vision Media Pty Ltd in an application made under section 21 of the Broadcasting Services Act ('the Act'), for an opinion to be formed by the Australian Broadcasting Authority ('the ABA') in relation to the category of broadcasting service proposed by the applicant for the service, 'Country Music Television'.

It is our opinion that the proposed service falls within the subscription narrowcasting category. This opinion is given having regard to the criteria set down in sections 17 and 22 of the Act. Matters considered by the ABA in reaching this opinion include:

- that reception of the service will be limited because it will provide programs of limited appeal;
- that the service will be made available only on payment of subscription fees.

Under subsection 21(5)(a) of the Act, this opinion is binding for five years, while the circumstances relating to the broadcasting service remain substantially the same as those advised to the ABA, in relation to the application for the opinion.

(IMPACT OF PROPOSALS) ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

I, Robert Murray Hill, Minister for the Environment, hereby notify that, on 23 December 1996, I was requested in writing to make available to the public the reasons for an environmental impact statement or a public environment report not being directed in regard to the proposal by the Minister for Primary Industries and Energy to issue a transitional woodchip export licence to Sawmillers Exports Pty Ltd for a 3 year period from 1 January 1997 to 31 December 1999 pursuant to paragraph 3.1.5 of the Environment Protection (Impact of Proposals) Administrative Procedures.

On 22 October 1996, I determined in accordance with paragraph 3.1.1(b) of the Environment Protection (Impact of Proposals) Administrative Procedures that neither an environmental impact statement nor a public environment report was required in regard to the proposal by the Minister for Primary Industries and Energy to consider the issue of woodchip export licences for periods of up to 3 years from 1 January 1997. The application by Sawmillers Exports Pty Ltd for a transitional woodchip export licence for a three year period from 1 January 1997 to 31 December 1999 was considered within the abovementioned determination.

ANTI-DUMPING AUTHORITY

FINAL FINDING ON GLYPHOSATE ACID
FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

The Anti-Dumping Authority has completed its inquiry into the alleged dumping of glyphosate acid from the People's Republic of China (China).

The Authority concluded that most exports of glyphosate acid from China to Australia were not dumped. Of the few shipments that had been dumped, the dumping margins were negligible.

The Authority was not satisfied that the glyphosate acid produced in Australia met the 'local content' requirements of subsection 269T(2) of the Customs Act 1901.

The Authority, therefore, recommended that the Minister not take anti-dumping action against imports of glyphosate acid from China.

The Minister has accepted the Authority's recommendation.

Requests for copies of the non-confidential version of the Authority's Report no. 159 should be addressed to the Information Officer, Margaret McLeod, at the Authority by telephoning (06) 213 6754 or internet MMCLEOD@dist.gov.au.

TRADE PRACTICES ACT 1974

Consumer Protection Notice No. 8 of 1997

WARNING NOTICE TO PUBLIC

I, GEOFFREY DANIEL PROSSER, Minister for Small Business and Consumer Affairs, pursuant to section 65B of the Trade Practices Act 1974, ADVISE that goods of the kind specified below are under investigation to determine whether they will or may cause injury to any person.

Particular of Goods:

All combination pram stroller models being of a design where, when in the pram configuration, the base is attached to the frame by a fabric sleeve, and which do not incorporate a secondary fastening system.

Reason for Investigation

The death of a five month old child in New Zealand has been associated with a pram which incorporates this design feature. The method used to attach the base to the frame of the pram may not be sufficiently secure. It is possible that a "trapdoor" effect can be created through which a child could fall. The investigation will establish whether this possible problem poses a safety risk for children.

Social Security (Access to Special Benefits by Newly Arrived Residents) Guidelines 1997

I, JOCELYN MARGARET NEWMAN, Minister for Social Security, determine the following Guidelines under subsection 739C (1) of the Social Security Act 1991.

Dated 19th March 1997.

Minister for Social Security

Citation

1. These Guidelines may be cited as the Social Security (Access to Special Benefits by Newly Arrived Residents) Guidelines 1997.

[NOTE: These Guidelines commence on gazettal: see Acts Interpretation Act 1901, ss. 46A and 48.]

Purpose

2. These Guidelines are intended to provide guidance to the Secretary in forming an opinion, for the purposes of subsection 739A (7) of the Act, in relation to the circumstances in which special benefits may be accessible during a newly arrived resident's waiting period.

Interpretation

3. (1) In these Guidelines:

"Act" means the Social Security Act 1991;

"claimant" means a person referred to in subsection 739A (1) of the Act;

"available funds", for a claimant, means the person's cash and readily realisable assets, and includes:

- (a) the person's shares and debentures in a public company or a foreign company within the meaning of the Corporations Law: and

*Social Security (Access to Special Benefits by Newly Arrived
Residents) Guidelines 1997* 2

- (b) amounts deposited with, or lent to, a bank or other financial institution by the person (whether or not the amount can be withdrawn or repaid immediately); and
- (c) amounts due, and able to be paid, to the person by or for a former employer of the person;

“in-kind support” means accommodation and sustenance provided to the claimant at no cost to the claimant;

“sponsor” has the meaning given in subregulation 1.20 (1) of the Migration Regulations.

(2) For the definition of “available funds” in subclause (1), a claimant’s available funds are taken to include:

- (a) the available funds of the claimant’s partner; and
- (b) the available funds of the claimant and the claimant’s partner.

(3) If:

- (a) during the 4 weeks immediately before a claimant claims special benefit, the claimant or the claimant’s partner transfers available funds to another person; and
- (b) either:
  - (i) the person transferring receives no consideration or inadequate consideration, in money or money’s worth for the transfer; or
  - (ii) the Secretary is satisfied that the purpose, or the dominant purpose, of the transfer was to enable the claimant to obtain special benefit;

then the transfer is to be taken not to have occurred.

Lack of funds or support

4. Special benefit may be paid if the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant:

- (a) has available funds of less than the equivalent of 2 weeks’ benefit:
  - (i) if the claimant is a member of a couple and both members of the couple have claimed special benefit—at the rate applicable to the claimant and the claimant’s partner if they were both receiving newstart allowance; or
  - (ii) in any other case—at the rate applicable to the claimant if the claimant was receiving a newstart allowance; and
- (b) demonstrates that financial or in-kind support cannot be obtained from any other source.

Support from sponsor

5. (1) For paragraph 4 (b), a claimant who is sponsored must have attempted to obtain support from the sponsor of the claimant unless subclause (2), (3), (5) or (6) applies.

Social Security (Access to Special Benefits by Newly Arrived Residents) Guidelines 1997

(2) A claimant is not required to obtain support from an individual sponsor if, on the basis of documentary evidence provided by the claimant, the Secretary is satisfied that the sponsor:

- (a) receives, or would receive if not subject to a waiting period, a social security benefit; or
- (b) receives a disability support pension; or
- (c) is declared bankrupt; or
- (d) is imprisoned; or
- (e) is a patient in a psychiatric institution, nursing home or hospital on a long term basis; or
- (f) has been reported to police as a missing person and cannot be located by police; or
- (g) has left Australia permanently; or
- (h) has died.

(3) A claimant is not required to accept support from an individual sponsor if the Secretary is satisfied that:

- (a) the claimant or a family member of the claimant is subject to abuse or violence by the sponsor or a member of the sponsor's household; and
- (b) the abuse or violence is substantiated by:
  - (i) a police report; or
  - (ii) documentary evidence that a court order for protection from apprehended violence has been granted and is in force; or
  - (iii) a medical report; or
  - (iv) documentary evidence that the claimant has become a permanent resident because the Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs is satisfied that the claimant has suffered domestic violence within the meaning of regulation 1.22 of the Migration Regulations.

(4) The Secretary may terminate special benefit paid as a result of circumstances set out in subparagraph (3) (b) (ii) if the court order is no longer in force.

(5) A claimant is not required to obtain support from a business sponsor if, on the basis of documentary evidence provided by the claimant, the Secretary is satisfied that:

- (a) the offer of employment by the business was withdrawn after the claimant arrived in Australia; or
- (b) the business is in receivership and the claimant's employment has been terminated; or
- (c) the business has ceased to operate within the claimant's waiting period; or
- (d) the claimant has been retrenched by the business; or
- (e) the claimant:
  - (i) has an overseas employment qualification; and
  - (ii) cannot work until the qualification is recognised in Australia; and

Social Security (Access to Special Benefits by Newly Arrived Residents) Guidelines 1997

- (iii) is subject to exceptional delay, for reasons beyond his or her control, in obtaining recognition of the qualification.
- (6) A claimant is not required to accept support from a business sponsor if the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant:
  - (a) has left employment with that business because the claimant claims that he or she has been harassed or unfairly dismissed; and
  - (b) meets the requirements of subclause (7) or (8).
- (7) A claimant meets the requirements of this subclause if:
  - (a) the claimant has filed a complaint of harassment with the relevant anti-discrimination body; and
  - (b) the body:
    - (i) has started to inquire into the complaint and has not discontinued its inquiry; or
    - (ii) has upheld the complaint.
- (8) A claimant meets the requirements of this subclause if:
  - (a) the claimant has lodged an appeal against unfair dismissal with the relevant industrial commission or court; and
  - (b) the commission or court:
    - (i) has not dismissed the appeal; or
    - (ii) has upheld the appeal.
- (9) The Secretary may terminate special benefit paid as a result of circumstances set out in subclause (7) or (8) if the complaint or appeal is not upheld.

Un-sponsored claimants

6. (1) A claimant who has not been sponsored will not be entitled to special benefit unless, on the basis of documentary evidence provided by the claimant, the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant's available funds are depleted due to:

- (a) prolonged illness of 1 or more of:
  - (i) the claimant; or
  - (ii) the claimant's dependant; or
- (b) for a claimant who was a dependant spouse, parent or child—the prolonged illness or the death of the person who provided support to the claimant; or
- (c) withdrawal, after the claimant arrived in Australia, of an offer of employment that was made to the claimant; or
- (d) retrenchment of the claimant; or
- (e) substantial loss of the claimant's capital due to the failure of investments; or
- (f) a business established by the claimant entering receivership; or
- (g) a business for which the claimant worked, other than a business established by the claimant:
  - (i) entering receivership; or

*Social Security (Access to Special Benefits by Newly Arrived
Residents) Guidelines 1997* 5

- (ii) ceasing to operate within the claimant's waiting period; or
- (h) the circumstances set out in paragraph 5 (5) (e).

(2) For subclause (1), available funds of a claimant should not be taken to be depleted only because the claimant:

- (a) cannot obtain or maintain employment unless the circumstances set out in paragraph 5 (5) (e) apply; or
  - (b) has purchased a principal residence; or
  - (c) cannot establish a business.
