DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DETAILS ABOUT AUSTRALIANS OVERSEAS

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PUBLIC INTEREST DETERMINATION UNDER THE PRIVACY ACT

The Privacy Act 1988 requires federal public sector agencies to comply with Information Privacy Principles which govern the handling of personal information. The Act enables the Privacy Commissioner to grant waivers from compliance with the Act through the mechanism of a public interest determination.

The Privacy Commissioner has received an application for a public interest determination under section 73 of the Act from the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. The Department is seeking authority to disclose personal information in certain limited circumstances.

The Privacy Act allows for personal information to be disclosed with the person's consent or if he or she is reasonably likely to be aware that the disclosure might occur. Disclosures may also occur when necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to life or health, when required or authorised by law, or in order to enforce the law or protect public revenue.

In addition to being able to disclose information in these circumstances, the Department wishes to be able to disclose limited information about Australians overseas to their next of kin in certain cases where either they refuse to consent, their capacity to give informed consent is in some way under question, or their consent cannot be obtained. The Department has applied to make limited disclosures on its own initiative in order to ensure adequate health care for the individual concerned, or on other humanitarian grounds. Disclosures could in some cases occur in response to a request from the next of kin to confirm details in media reports about an Australian arrested or imprisoned overseas, or to advise of an Australian's whereabouts. The Department is not seeking blanket authorisation to disclose personal information, but instead is seeking the determination so that it can better fulfil its consular functions. Any decision to disclose information would be made by a senior authorised officer of the Department.

Copies of the application are available from the address below or by telephoning the Privacy Hotline on 1800 023 985. The Privacy Commissioner invites written comments on the application by 20 June 1997. She will then issue a draft determination, copies of which will be available on request.

Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993

MODIFICATION DECLARATION No 21

I, Frederick George Herbert Pooley, Insurance and Superannuation Commissioner, under section 332 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 DECLARE that the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations (the "Regulations") are to have effect, in relation to the superannuation entities to which Division 2.3 of Part 2 of the Regulations applies, and their trustees, as if they were modified by adding after regulation 2.14:

"Information can be provided by cross-reference to other documents"

2.14A. (1) If a trustee is required by this Division to give information to a person, the requirement is taken to be satisfied if:

- (a) the trustee gives the person a document (the "received document"), which the person actually receives, which refers to another document (the "other document") containing the information; and
- (b) subregulations (2) to (5) are complied with.

(2) The received document must clearly identify:

- (a) the other document; and
- (b) the nature of the information.

(3) The received document must state that the trustee will provide a copy of the other document free of charge to a person who asks for it.

(4) The other document must be issued, or authorised to be issued, by the trustee.

(5) The trustee must not have failed or refused to provide a copy of the other document free of charge when asked by the person for a copy of it. "

Dated 15 May 1997

F G H Pooley
Commissioner

Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

ACCOMPANYING

PURPOSE OF THE DECLARATION

1. The purpose of modification declaration number 21 is to enable trustees of superannuation funds to provide "disclosure by reference" when giving new standard employer-sponsored members the information prescribed by Division 2.3 of Part 2 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations (the "SIS Regulations").

BACKGROUND

2. Section 160 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 allows information to be given to prospective members of public offer entities via "disclosure by reference". The section is intended to streamline disclosure obligations where information required to be given is readily available elsewhere. In this situation, the trustee does not have to set out the information in full in the disclosure document itself (that is, the document given to the prospective member). Instead, the trustee is permitted to simply say in the disclosure document that certain identified information is contained in another document and inform the reader how he or she can obtain that other document free of charge.
3. However, section 160 only allows disclosure by reference for the purposes of (so far as here relevant) section 157, which requires certain information to be given to prospective members of public offer entities, other than prospective standard employer-sponsored members. Section 160 does not extend to Division 2.3 of Part 2 of the SIS Regulations, which requires certain information to be given to new standard employer-sponsored members of public offer superannuation funds.

REASON FOR AND EXPLANATION OF THE DECLARATION

4. Thus, there was the anomalous situation that the trustee of a public offer superannuation fund could give information to prospective non-standard employer-sponsored members by reference, but could not give information to new standard employer-sponsored members by reference. There is in fact no reason why new standard employer-sponsored members should not also be able to be given information by reference. It was not intended to impose a higher standard of disclosure under the SIS legislation for standard employer-sponsored members than for non-standard employer-sponsored members.
5. The Commissioner has decided to rectify this anomaly by making modification declaration number 21. The declaration inserts a new regulation 2.14A into the SIS Regulations.
6. The new regulation 2.14A permits the information required to be given under Division 2.3 of Part 2 (which contains regulations 2.12 to 2.16) to be given via disclosure by reference, provided that the conditions in subregulations 2.14A(2) to (5) are complied with.

COMMENCEMENT

7. Modification declaration number 21 commences on the day it is made.
