Environment

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

Wildlife Protection (Regulation of Exports and Imports) Act 1982

DECLARATION OF CONTROLLED SPECIMENS

I, ROBERT MURRAY HILL, Minister for the Environment, having considered comments as required by subsection 9B (3) of the Wildlife Protection (Regulation of Exports and Imports) Act 1982 (the Act) and having taken into account advice from the Designated Authority on those matters specified in Regulation 5A(1) for the purposes of subsection 10A (5) of the Act, hereby declare flora harvested from Western Australian Crown and private lands in accordance with the management arrangements outlined in the document entitled 'Management of Commercial Harvesting of Protected Flora in Western Australia', submitted by the Department of Conservation and Land Management, to be "controlled specimens" for the purposes of subsection 10A (2) of the Act, subject to the following conditions:

1. This approval of the management plan is restricted to those taxa identified on the Export Flora List by the Western Australian Department of Conservation and Land Management, as amended from time to time in accordance with the provision of Section C.2 of the management plan, and does not imply Commonwealth endorsement of the species not so covered, except in so far as the species is covered by Conditions 2 and 3 of this declaration.;
2. Specimens of species not on the Export Flora List may be harvested for commercial purposes from 'time to time' in accordance with paragraph 11 of the management plan, for the purposes of domestic Australian trade or export in accordance with Condition 3 of this declaration;
3. Specimens of species not on the Export Flora List may be exported where this is: consistent with Condition 2 above; in accordance with the procedures outlined at paragraphs 83 and 84 of the management plan; and, the specimens are accompanied by a valid export permit issued in accordance with the procedures of the Wildlife Protection (Regulation of Exports and Imports) Act 1982;
4. Reports are to be provided by the Department of Conservation and Land Management, as outlined at Sections J.1 and J.2 of the management plan, to the Designated Authority and are to include: an annual review of the progress in achieving the objectives and aims of the management plan; to separately identify species on, and not on, the Export Flora List; actions on monitoring; determination and implementation of quotas; and summary of actions on any concerns with harvesting of particular species or particular locations;
5. Any reports provided by Environment Australia to the Western Australian Department of Conservation and Land Management, in compliance with Section J.3 of the management plan, are not to contravene the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988;
6. This declaration is valid from 1 July 1998 until 30 June 2003.

Dated this day of Finance and Administration

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY ORDERS (AMENDMENT) 1998

I, John Fahey, Minister for Finance and Administration, make the following Finance Minister's Orders under section 63(1)(b) of the Financial Management and Accountability Act 1997.

JOHN FAHEY
Minister for Finance and Administration
24 June 1998

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

Citation

- 1.1 These Orders may be cited as the Financial Management and Accountability Orders (Amendment) 1998.

Commencement

- 1.2 These Orders commence on 1 July 1998.
- 1.3 Renumber clauses 6.3.1 and 6.3.2. of the Financial Management and Accountability Orders 1997 as 6.4.1 and 6.4.2 respectively.
- 1.4 Insert after the existing clause 6.2.2 the following:

Comcover

- 6.3.1 A managed insurance fund to be known as Comcover will be established within the Department of Finance and Administration.
- 6.3.2 Comcover will indemnify, or will arrange indemnity, for all member organisations in respect of all insurable losses, except employers' liability risks already covered by Comcare, specified in writing by Comcover to each member organisation. It will also promote transparency, accountability, and the better management of the Commonwealth's insurable risks.

AUSTRALIAN ELECTORAL COMMISSION

Register of Political Parties

The Australian Electoral Commission has received the following application to change party details in the Register of Political Parties under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Act):

|-------------------|--|
| Name of Party: | Abolish Child Support/Family Court Party |
| Nature of change: | To add as the abbreviation of the party Protect Jobs: Reduce Imports, Increase Tariffs |

The above application was made by 3 members of the party.

If you believe that the party should not be allowed to add its abbreviation:

- because the application does not comply with section 134 of the Act; or
- because the party's abbreviation is likely to be confused with the name or abbreviation of another registered party (one that is not related to the applicant party);

you may formally object by writing to the Australian Electoral Commission within one month after the date of this notification, i.e. by 22 August 1998. Objections, which must be signed and contain your address, should be sent to the Commission (marked to the attention of the Registrar of Political Parties), PO Box E201, Kingston, ACT 2604.

Please contact Song Woon Kon on (02) 6271 4491 if you wish to have a copy of section 134. Objections will be made available to the applicants for comment.

Aged Care Act 1997

Accreditation Grant Principles 1998

Note: Part 5.4 of the Aged Care Act 1997

Part 5.4 of the Aged Care Act 1997 is about making accreditation grants.

The Aged Care Standards and Accreditation Agency is the body corporate paid an accreditation grant under the accreditation grant agreement for the purposes set out in these Principles. The Agency will monitor new quality assurance arrangements for residential care services.

These Principles set out the procedures to be followed, and the matters to be taken into account, by the Agency for assessment of residential care services, and conditions to which the accreditation grant is subject.

Part 1—Preliminary

2.1 Name of Principles

These Principles are the Accreditation Grant Principles 1998.

2.2 Commencement

These Principles commence on gazettal.

2.3 Definitions

In these Principles:

Accountability Principles means the Accountability Principles 1998 made under subsection 96-1 (1) of the Act.

accreditation grant agreement means an agreement under which an accreditation grant is payable.

Note Accreditation grant agreements are authorised by subsection 80-1 (1) of the Act.

Accreditation Grant Principles 1998

Act means the Aged Care Act 1997.

approved assessor means a person approved under section 2.6 as an assessor for a residential care service.

key personnel:

- (a) for an approved provider—has the same meaning as in subsection 9-1 (2) of the Act; or
- (b) for a person who is not an approved provider—means the persons who would be the person's key personnel if the person were an approved provider.

new residential care service means an undertaking through which residential care is proposed to be, but is not being, provided.

representative, for a person receiving care through a residential care service, includes an advocate, carer, legal guardian and relative.

residential care service includes a new residential care service.

Residential Care Standards means the Residential Care Standards in Schedule 3 of the Quality of Care Principles 1997.

transition period means the period after these Principles commence and before 1 January 2001.

Note: Definitions

A number of expressions used in these Principles are defined in the Aged Care Act 1997 (see Dictionary in Schedule 1), including:

- accreditation body
- accreditation grant
- approved provider
- care
- residential care service.

Part 2—Accreditation grant for assessment of services and promotion of quality care

2.4 Purpose of Part (Act, s 80-1)

This Part sets out functions to be performed by the accreditation body.

Division 1—Conducting assessments

2.5 Assessment of residential care services

- (1) The accreditation body must arrange for assessments of residential care services to be conducted during the transition period.
- (2) An assessment of a residential care service must take into account whether the level of care provided by the service to care recipients complies with the Residential Care Standards.
- (3) The accreditation body may use any of the following indicators to decide the order in which residential care services are to be assessed:
 - (a) any change of ownership of the service;
 - (b) the number and seriousness of complaints made against the service;
 - (c) the length of time since the service was last assessed;
 - (d) the results of previous assessments of the service.

2.6 Procedure for assessments

- (1) The assessment of the residential care service must be carried out by a person approved by the accreditation body as an assessor (the approved assessor).
- (2) Before the assessment is carried out, the accreditation body:
 - (a) must tell the residential care service, in writing, that the service is to be assessed by an approved assessor; and
 - (b) must ask the service to provide any information relevant to the assessment.

Accreditation Grant Principles 1998

- (3) In carrying out the assessment, the approved assessor:
- (a) must act consistently with any provisions of the Accountability Principles applying to the assessment; and
 - (b) must assess the residential care service's quality of care against the Residential Care Standards; and
 - (c) must meet with the approved provider of the service (or key personnel of the approved provider), and persons receiving care through the service (or their representatives), during any on-site assessment to discuss the assessment; and
 - (d) must meet with the approved provider at the end of any on-site assessment to discuss the assessment; and
 - (e) must not disclose or communicate to the service, or to key personnel of the service, information identifying persons receiving care through the service (or their representatives).

Note The Accountability Principles set out various aspects of the access that a person may have to a residential care service in carrying out functions under these Principles.

- (4) Within 7 days after completing the assessment, the approved assessor must give the accreditation body and the residential care service a written report of the assessment.
- (5) The assessment must clearly identify whether or not the residential care service complies with the Residential Care Standards.

2.7 Publication of assessment

Within 28 days after receiving an assessment report, the accreditation body must publish the report.

2.8 Assessment report to be made available

The accreditation body must give a copy of an approved assessor's report given to the accreditation body to anyone who asks for a copy.

2.9 Consequences of failure to comply with Residential Care Standards

- (1) If, in performing its functions, the accreditation body identifies a failure by a residential care service to comply with the Residential Care Standards, the accreditation body must decide whether the failure has placed, or may place, the safety, health or wellbeing of persons receiving care through the service at serious risk.
- (2) If the accreditation body decides that the failure has placed, or may place, the safety, health or wellbeing of persons receiving care through the service at serious risk, the accreditation body must immediately tell the Secretary and the service, in writing, about the failure and any concerns of the accreditation body.

- (3) If the accreditation body decides that the failure has not placed, and will not place, the safety, health or wellbeing of persons receiving care through the service at serious risk, the accreditation body must tell the residential care service, in writing, about:
 - (a) the areas in which improvements must be made by the service to ensure that it complies with the Residential Care Standards; and
 - (b) the timetable to make improvements in the areas; and
 - (c) the program of visits by an approved assessor to assess progress made by the service in making improvements in the areas.
- (4) If, at the end of the timetable, the accreditation body is not satisfied that the level of care provided by the residential care service complies with the Residential Care Standards, the accreditation body must recommend to the Secretary that sanctions under the Act be imposed on the approved provider that operates the service.
- (5) If, at the end of the timetable, the accreditation body is satisfied that the level of care provided by the residential care service complies with the Residential Care Standards, the accreditation body and the approved provider that operates the service must agree on arrangements for regular supervision of the service.
- (6) If the accreditation body and the residential care service do not agree on the issue mentioned in subsection (5), the accreditation body must:
 - (a) tell the Secretary that there is no agreement on the issue; and
 - (b) recommend to the Secretary that sanctions under the Act be imposed on the approved provider that operates the service.
- (7) If the accreditation body takes action under subsection (2) or (4), the accreditation body may continue to supervise the residential care service, while the matter is being considered by the Secretary, for either or both of the following reasons:
 - (a) to ensure that the safety, health or wellbeing of persons receiving care through the service are not placed at serious risk;
 - (b) to suggest areas in which improvements may be made by the service.

*Division 2—Promoting quality care in residential care services2.10 Promoting and encouraging quality care

- (1) The accreditation body must promote and encourage quality care in residential care services.
- (2) The accreditation body may, for example:
 - (a) provide information, education, training and support for residential care services; and
 - (b) identify and encourage best practice for residential care services.

Part 3—Condition of accreditation grant

2.11 Purpose of Part (Act, s 80-2)

An accreditation grant is subject to various conditions under section 80-2 of the Act. This Part sets out 1 of the conditions.

2.12 Information requested by the Minister

If asked by the Minister, the accreditation body must give the Minister information about any aspect of the accreditation body's operations.

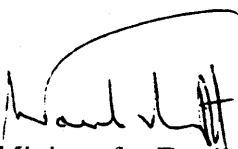

Aged Care Act 1997

Accountability Principles 1998

Note: Part 4.3 of the Aged Care Act 1997

Part 4.3 of the Aged Care Act 1997 is about the responsibilities of an approved provider in relation to accountability for the aged care provided by the approved provider through an aged care service. Sanctions can be imposed on an approved provider that does not comply with its responsibilities under Part 4.3 of the Act (see Part 4.4).

The responsibility of an approved provider under paragraph 63-1 (1) (j) of the Act is to allow people authorised by the Secretary access to an approved provider's residential care service, as required in these Principles, in order to review the certification of the service under section 39-4 of the Act.

The responsibility of an approved provider under paragraph 63-1 (1) (l) of the Act is to allow people acting for accreditation bodies to have such access to an approved provider's residential care service as is specified in these Principles.

Under paragraph 63-1 (1) (m) of the Act, an approved provider is subject to such other responsibilities as are specified in these Principles.

These Principles set out various aspects of the access that must be given by an approved provider to persons for the purposes of paragraphs 63-1 (1) (j), (l) and (m) of the Act.

Part 1—Preliminary

1.1 Name of Principles

These Principles are the Accountability Principles 1998.

1.2 Commencement

These Principles commence on gazettal.

1.3 Definitions

In these Principles:

Accreditation Grant Principles means the Accreditation Grant Principles 1998 made under subsection 96-1 (1) of the Act.

Act means the Aged Care Act 1997.

business hours means the hours between 9 am and 5 pm on a business day.

Committee Principles means the Committee Principles 1997 made under section 96-3 of the Act.

premises, for a residential care service, means any place where the operation or administration of the service occurs.

1.4 Meaning of representative

- (1) In these Principles, representative means the following persons or bodies:
 - (a) a person or body authorised by the Secretary to access a residential care service to review the certification of the service under section 39-4 of the Act;
 - (b) a person acting for an accreditation body who is approved by the accreditation body as an approved assessor under Division 1 of Part 2 of the Accreditation Grant Principles;
 - (c) a member of a Residential Care Standards Review Committee mentioned in Chapter 2 of the Committee Principles;
 - (d) the Secretary, in relation to the Secretary's functions under Divisions 2 and 4 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Committee Principles;
 - (e) a person appointed as a mediator under section 10.55 of the Committee Principles;
 - (f) a member of a Complaints Resolution Committee mentioned in Division 6 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Committee Principles;
 - (g) a member of a Determinations Review Panel mentioned in Division 7 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Committee Principles.
- (2) However, a person mentioned in subsection (1) is not a representative if the person is an authorised officer under the Act.

Note: Definitions

A number of expressions used in these Principles are defined in the Aged Care Act 1997 (see Dictionary in Schedule 1), including:

- accreditation body
- aged care
- aged care service
- approved provider
- authorised officer
- business day
- care
- certification
- residential care service.

Part 2—Access to residential care service by a representative

1.5 Purpose of Part (Act, s 63-1)

This Part sets out various aspects of the access to a residential care service that must be given to a representative by an approved provider who consents to the access.

1.6 Approved provider's responsibilities

- (1) In order to comply with the responsibilities of an approved provider under paragraphs 63-1 (1) (j) and (l) of the Act, the approved provider must allow a representative, other than the persons mentioned in paragraphs (c) to (g) of the definition of representative in subsection 1.4 (1), access, as set out in these Principles, to the residential care service operated by the approved provider.
- (2) Under paragraph 63-1 (1) (m) of the Act, an approved provider has the responsibility of allowing a person mentioned in paragraphs (c) to (g) of the definition of representative in subsection 1.4 (1), access, as set out in these Principles, to the residential care service operated by the approved provider.

1.7 Notification of access

- (1) An approved provider must allow a representative access to its residential care service if the representative has given notice, in writing, to the approved provider of the access to the service required by the representative.
- (2) However, the following representatives may give notice orally to the approved provider of the access to the service required by the representative:
 - (a) the Secretary, in relation to the Secretary's functions under Divisions 2 and 4 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Committee Principles;
 - (b) a person appointed as a mediator under section 10.55 of the Committee Principles;
 - (c) a member of a Complaints Resolution Committee mentioned in Division 6 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Committee Principles;
 - (d) a member of a Determinations Review Panel mentioned in Division 7 of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Committee Principles.

Note Subsection 39-4 (2) of the Act obliges the Secretary to give notice, in writing, to the approved provider of the access required by a representative mentioned in paragraph (a) of the definition of representative in subsection 1.4 (1) at least 5 business days before access is required.

1.8 Consent to access service

- (1) A representative must not access an approved provider's residential care service unless the approved provider has consented to the access.
- (2) The approved provider may withdraw consent at any time.
- (3) The representative must leave the premises of the service if the approved provider asks the representative to do so.
- (4) Before obtaining the consent of an approved provider, the representative must inform the approved provider that the approved provider may refuse to give consent, or withdraw that consent at any time.
- (5) Access by a representative by virtue of the consent of the approved provider is not lawful unless the approved provider voluntarily consented to the access.
- (6) An approved provider must not unreasonably withhold consent if access to the service is required in circumstances where the representative believes, on reasonable grounds, that there is a serious risk to the safety, health or wellbeing of a person receiving care through the service.

Note An approved provider who refuses to consent to a representative's access to the service or withdraws consent for a representative's access to the service may not be complying with the approved provider's responsibilities under paragraph 63-1 (1) (j), (l) or (m) of the Act. Failure to comply with a responsibility can result in a sanction being imposed under Part 4.4 of the Act. However, some acts of an approved provider will not constitute failure to comply with those responsibilities (see section 1.13).

1.9 Identification of representative

An approved provider must allow a representative access to its residential care service if the representative has:

- (a) a letter of authority that sets out:
 - (i) the name of the representative; and
 - (ii) the representative's position; and
- (b) photographic identification of the representative.

1.10 Hours of access

- (1) An approved provider must allow a representative access to its residential care service:
 - (a) during business hours; and
 - (b) at any time outside business hours if:
 - (i) the representative is acting on a serious complaint where a care recipient's safety, health or wellbeing may be at risk; or
 - (ii) the representative needs to examine a process or practice of the service that does not occur during business hours.
- (2) However, an approved provider must allow a representative access to its residential care service at any time outside business hours in circumstances other than those set out in paragraph (1) (b) if access during that time is undertaken by the representative in a manner that does not unreasonably disrupt the quality of care and services being provided by the service.
- (3) If an approved provider refuses to allow a representative access at any time outside business hours in circumstances other than those set out in paragraph (1) (b) because access during that time, and in the manner proposed by the representative, would unreasonably disrupt the quality of care and services being provided by the service, the approved provider and the representative must agree on an alternative time for access to the service by the representative that is suitable for the purposes of the access.

1.11 Access to premises, documents etc

- (1) An approved provider must allow a representative access to its residential care service to perform any of the following:
 - (a) to inspect any part of the premises of the residential care service;
 - (b) to take photographs (including a video recording), or make sketches, of the premises, or any substance or thing at the premises;
 - (c) to inspect, examine and take samples of, any substance or thing on or in the premises;
 - (d) to inspect any document or record kept by the approved provider;
 - (e) to take extracts from, or copies of, any document or record kept by the approved provider;
 - (f) to operate any equipment on the premises to see whether the equipment, or a disk, tape or other storage device on the premises that is associated with the equipment, contains any information relevant to the performance of the functions of the representative;
 - (g) to take copies, in documentary form or on a disk, tape or other storage device, of information obtained under paragraph (f) that is relevant to the performance of the functions of the representative;
 - (h) to take onto the premises any equipment or material reasonably necessary for the purpose of performing an action under paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (g).

- (2) However, the approved provider may refuse to allow a representative to perform the actions mentioned in paragraphs (1) (b), (c), (d), (e) or (g) if the substance, thing, document or record mentioned in the paragraphs is not relevant to the operation or administration by the approved provider of its residential care service.
- (3) Also, the approved provider may refuse to allow a representative to perform:
- (a) the actions mentioned in paragraphs (1) (b), (c), (d), (e) or (g) in relation to a care recipient, or a care recipient's property, if the care recipient has not consented to the performance of the action; and
 - (b) the actions mentioned in paragraph (1) (b) in relation to a staff member or a contractor, or a staff member's or contractor's property, if the staff member or contractor (as the case requires) has not consented to the performance of the action.

1.12 Access to staff etc

An approved provider must not impede a representative's access to, and ability to question, any person on the premises of its residential care service, including staff, care recipients, visitors and contractors, if the access and questioning by the representative is relevant to the representative's functions and is:

- (a) relevant to the operation or administration by the approved provider of its residential care service; or
- (b) necessary in order to obtain information about whether the service is meeting its obligations under the Act.

1.13 Refusal of access

The following acts by an approved provider do not constitute non-compliance with the approved provider's responsibilities under paragraph 63-1 (1) (j), (l) or (m) of the Act:

- (a) refusing to allow a representative access to its residential care service because the representative has not complied with subsection 1.7 (1) or (2), or section 1.9;
- (b) refusing to allow a representative access to its residential care service under subsection 1.10 (3) or 1.11 (2) or (3);
- (c) refusing to allow a representative access to its residential care service because the representative's conduct is inconsistent with section 1.12.

BANKING (EXEMPTION) ORDER No 87

Banking Act 1959

I, Graeme John Thompson, Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority ("APRA"), under subsection 11(1) of the Banking Act 1959 (the "Act"), DETERMINE that:

1. subsection 66A(1) of the Act does not apply to ADI Limited, a body corporate registered under the Corporations Law, to the extent that it prohibits a person from assuming or using, in Australia, the expression "ADI" in relation to a financial business carried on by the person; and
2. section 8 of the Act does not apply to the Reserve Bank of Australia.

This order is taken to have commenced on 1 July 1998.

This order is made pursuant to a lawful delegation of power by the Board of APRA.

AUSTRALIAN
CUSTOMS SERVICE

Notification of Preliminary Finding

CUSTOMS ACT 1901 - PART XVb
PRELIMINARY FINDING INTO THE ALLEGED
DUMPING OF CERTAIN WOUND/SKIN CLOSURE STRIPS
EXPORTED FROM FRANCE, THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The Australian Customs Service has completed its investigation into the alleged dumping of reinforced and non-reinforced wound or skin closure strips exported from France, the Federal Republic of Germany (Germany) and the United States of America (USA). The tariff classification of the goods is 3005.10.00 (statistical code 23). The investigation commenced on 3 April 1998 following an application by Surgi Supplies International Pty Ltd.

Customs found that:

- wound/skin closure strips have been exported from France, Germany and the USA at dumped prices;
- the Australian industry producing like goods has suffered material injury;
- the dumping has caused material injury to the Australian industry; and
- material injury to the Australian industry is threatened by future exports of dumped wound/skin closure strips from France, Germany and the USA.

Accordingly, Customs has made a preliminary finding that there are sufficient grounds for the publication of a dumping duty notice in respect of the goods the subject of the application.

Securities under section 42 of the Customs Act 1901 will be required and taken in respect of any interim dumping duty that may become payable on the goods that are imported on or after 15 July 1998 from France, Germany and the USA.

Dumping margins were established by a comparison of the weighted average of export prices over the investigation period with the weighted average of corresponding normal values over that period.

Customs found the Australian industry had suffered material injury in the form of price undercutting on specific tenders and contracts, loss of specific sales, loss of sales volume and market share and the under-utilisation of capacity caused by the presence of dumped goods.

Customs will now refer the matter to the Anti-Dumping Authority who must hold an inquiry and report to the Minister as to whether a dumping duty notice should be published.

Further details of Customs preliminary finding are contained in ACDN No.98/041 and in a report that will be sent to interested parties. This report is available from the Trade Measures Branch ph: (02) 6275 6057, fax: (02) 6275 6990.

NOTICE UNDER SUBSECTION 269TD(2) OF THE CUSTOMS ACT 1901

I have considered the application, taking into account submissions received and any other matters considered relevant, and hereby make a preliminary finding that there are sufficient grounds for the publication of a dumping duty notice in respect of certain reinforced and non-reinforced wound/skin closure strips exported from France, the Federal Republic of Germany and the United States of America.
