I, PETER ROGER SHERGOLD, Secretary to the Department of Employment, Workplace Relations and Small Business, acting under subsection 84(5) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (the Act) as the delegate of the Minister for Employment, Workplace Relations and Small Business:

1. revoke all previous directions signed by me relating to subsection 84(5) of the Act; and
2. direct that the following notice be published in the Commonwealth Gazette specifying the manner in which, and any conditions and qualifications subject to which, powers or functions conferred on inspectors under the Act are to be exercised or performed.

DIRECTIONS

1. In these Directions:
 - (a) the Act means the Workplace Relations Act 1996, and includes the Regulations made under that Act;
 - (b) Adviser means an inspector as defined in subsection 4(1) of the Act;
 - (c) "agreement" means a certified agreement as defined in subsection 4(1) of the Act; and
 - (d) "award" means an award as defined in subsection 4(1) of the Act; and
 - (e) litigation action means one or more of the following actions:
 - (i) any action within the scope of paragraph (a) or (b) of subregulation 9(3) of the Regulations;
 - (ii) making an application under subsection 170CE(4) or 170CP(4) of the Act;
 - (iii) suing for penalty under section 178 of the Act;
 - (iv) making an application under section 187AC of the Act for an order in respect of a contravention of Part VIIIA of the Act; or
 - (v) making an application under sub-regulation 109C(1)c of the Workplace Relations Regulations 1996.

2. Subject to clause 5 of these Directions Advisers may only exercise powers or perform functions relating to litigation action in respect of an alleged breach of an award or agreement or provision of the Act as a last resort, after making every reasonable endeavour to seek voluntary compliance with the requirements of the award, agreement or the Act.
3. An adviser who is appointed or employed under the Public Service Act 1922 may only undertake litigation action relating to an alleged breach of an award or agreement with the consent of a person occupying or performing the duties of one of the following offices in the Department of Employment, Workplace Relations and Small Business:
 - (a) where the adviser is located in a State – the Deputy State Manager of that State;
 - (b) Assistant Secretary, Office of Workplace Services;
 - (c) Group Manager, of the Group with functional responsibility for the Office of Workplace Services; or
 - (d) Senior Manager Legal and Compliance, Office of the Employment Advocate (OEA).
4. An adviser who is an officer or employee of the Public Service of a State may only undertake litigation action in relation to an alleged breach of an award or agreement with the consent of a person occupying or performing the duties of one of the following offices in the Department of Employment, Workplace Relations and Small Business:
 - (a) Assistant Secretary, Office of Workplace Services; or
 - (b) Group Manager, of the Group with functional responsibility for the Office of Workplace Services.
5. An adviser may only undertake litigation action with the consent of a person occupying or performing the duties of one of the following offices in the Department of Employment, Workplace Relations and Small Business:
 - (a) Group Manager, of the Group with functional responsibility for the Office of Workplace Services; or
 - (b) Senior Manager Legal and Compliance, Office of the Employment Advocate.

Where the Group Manager of the Group or the Senior Manager Legal and Compliance (OEA) is of the view that seeking voluntary compliance is not the most efficient and effective method of addressing the particular matter either officer may approve commencement of litigation without an Adviser first seeking voluntary compliance. Circumstances where the Group Manager or the Senior Manager Legal and Compliance may adopt such an approach include where their prior knowledge of or the previous history of the parties points to such an approach; or because the case is one which warrants urgent action.

In any event where litigation action has been commenced Advisers should pursue reasonable endeavours to negotiate an early resolution of the matter which includes ensuring compliance with the legislation.
