CONSULTATION

Amendment of the National Capital Plan Draft Amendment 33 (Parliamentary Zone Review)

The National Capital Authority has prepared Draft Amendment 33 of the National Capital Plan. In accordance with sections 15(1) and 24 of the Australian Capital Territory (Planning and Land Management) Act 1988, Draft Amendment 33 is now available for public inspection and comment.

The Authority carried out a Review of the Parliamentary Zone and released its findings in an Outcomes report in 2000. The National Capital Authority has now prepared Draft Amendment 33 which proposes to include provisions that will facilitate the achievement of the outcomes of the Review. The Draft Amendment includes provisions relating to the following matters:

- A Master Plan, proposed as Appendix T6 to the National Capital Plan, to include statements of Objectives and Intentions, Principles and Policies that are consistent with the Review findings. This Master Plan includes an Indicative Development Plan to guide future development in lieu of the existing Parliamentary Zone Development Plan.
- The Land Use Policy Plan as Figure 5 in the existing National Capital Plan is to be amended to include reference to the Master Plan at Appendix T6 and to commence implementation of the refined road pattern, shown in the Indicative Development Plan, by deleting current road reservations where roads have not been constructed and are not required for the future.

The National Capital Authority invites interested people and organisations to provide written comment. Comments will be accepted until close of business on 16 July 2001 and should be sent to:
