Attorney-General's Department
Office of Legislative Drafting and Publishing

This Gazette is published by the Office of Legislative Drafting and Publishing (OLDP) on behalf of the Commonwealth of Australia.

OLDP is a specialist professional drafter and the pre-eminent drafter of Commonwealth subordinate legislation.

OLDP strives to maintain and enhance its reputation as a centre of drafting excellence. OLDP produces legislative and administrative instruments of the highest standard through the innovative use of plain English, current technology and rigorous quality assurance procedures.

Through its responsibility for maintaining the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments (FRLI), OLDP plays an important role in the legislative process for Commonwealth legislative instruments.

OLDP prepares compilations of a range of Commonwealth legislation, arranges publication of Commonwealth legislation and legislative materials in hard copy form, and provides online access to Commonwealth legislation and legislative materials via the ComLaw (www.comlaw.gov.au) and the FRLI (www.frli.gov.au) websites.

OLDP's responsibilities

- drafting
- advising about drafting and interpreting instruments created under a statutory power
- maintaining the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments, registering legislative instruments and lodging registered instruments for tabling in Parliament
- preparing compilations of Acts and select legislative instruments

- providing ready public access to the law through ComLaw (www.comlaw.gov.au) and the Federal Register of Legislative instruments (www.frli.gov.au)
- ensuring that printed copies of Acts, select legislative instruments and related legislative material are available in 'as made' and compiled form

Other assistance

OLDP can provide advice on:

- the basis and role of delegated legislation and other instruments made under a statutory power
- the requirements and procedures for lodgment, registration, disallowance and sunseting of legislative instruments
- sound techniques for developing efficient drafting instructions (important for efficient achievement of your legislative program).

Other OLDP services

OLDP can provide a range of other services on a billable basis, including:

- arranging gazettal and tabling of other OLDP drafted non-legislative instruments.
- preparing compilations of legislative and non-legislative instruments

Some public notifications on the Internet and in the Gazette relating to the processing of referrals for approval under Chapter 4 of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 may occasionally be missed in processing by the Department of Environment and Heritage, or may not meet timeframes for notification. The Department of the Environment and Heritage has implemented systems and ongoing quality assurance procedures to minimise any risk of missing a notification within the required timeframe. Where a missed notification is identified the practice will be to notify these even though the timeframe for notification has lapsed. This will ensure that the history of notifications for each referral is available to the public. The Department of the Environment and Heritage regrets any inconvenience that may be caused by a missed notification. Please note that late notifications have not affected subsequent processing of referrals or assessments and they do not affect decisions made.

Schedule

A Working Party of the Australian Health Ethics Committee (AHEC), a principal committee of the NHMRC, has developed this public consultation draft in response to a request in August 2004 from the Organ Donation Working Group of the Australian Health Ministers' Advisory Council for AHEC to review the NHMRC's Recommendations for the Donation of Cadaveric Organs and Tissue for Transplantation (1996).

The draft document outlines ethical principles for health professionals involved in organ and tissue donation after death, and provides guidance about how these principles can be put into practice.

When finalised, these guidelines are intended to remain in force until they are revised or rescinded by the NHMRC.

REVOCATION AND SUBSTITUTION OF DUMPING DUTY NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE UNDER SECTION 269ZZM OF THE CUSTOMS ACT 1901

The Australian Customs Service has completed a reinvestigation of a reviewable decision made by the Minister for Justice and Customs to publish a dumping duty notice under paragraphs 269TG(1) and (2) of the Customs Act 1901 on 9 February 2005 in respect of certain silicon from the People's Republic of China.

A report has been submitted in accordance with s. 269ZZL(3) of the Customs Act 1901. Trade Measures Report No. 103 (the Report), sets out the findings made by an authorised delegate of the Chief Executive Officer of Customs as a result of the reinvestigation. The Report is available on request from the Trade Measures Branch, Australian Customs Service, Canberra on the details specified in this notice or on the internet at www.customs.gov.au. The Report contains details about the reinvestigation and should be read in conjunction with this notice.

I, CHRISTOPHER MARTIN ELLISON, Minister for Justice and Customs, have considered and accepted the findings in the Report.

I, CHRISTOPHER MARTIN ELLISON, revoke the previous decision to publish a dumping duty notice and substitute a new decision to publish a dumping duty notice.

I declare that section 8 of the Customs Tariff (Anti Dumping) Act 1975 applies to silicon containing more than:

- a) 97% by weight, but less than 99.99% by weight, of silicon; or
- b) a combined silicon and aluminium content of greater than 97% by weight but less than 99.99% by weight and with an impurity level of less than 0.4% iron and a calcium impurity level of less than 0.1% calcium in both the above instances exported from the People's Republic of China.

This substituted decision takes effect on and after 6 October 2004.

Export prices, non-injurious prices and normal values will not be published in this notice as they may reveal confidential information.

Enquiries may be made by ringing telephone no. 02 6275 6014, by facsimile no. 02 6275 6990 or by email tmops3@customs.gov.au.

Certain Silicon From
The People's Republic of China

NOTICE PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION 8(5)

I, CHRISTOPHER MARTIN ELLISON, Minister for Justice and Customs, pursuant to subsection 8(5) of the Customs Tariff (Anti Dumping) Act 1975, DIRECT that the element of interim dumping duty referred to in paragraph (4)(a) in respect of silicon containing more than:

- (a) 97% by weight, but less than 99.99% by weight, of silicon; or
- (b) silicon containing a combined silicon and aluminium content of greater than 97% by weight but less than 99.99% by weight and with an impurity level of less than 0.4% iron and a calcium impurity level of less than 0.1% calcium in both the above instances (hereafter referred to as "the goods") exported from the People's Republic of China to Australia be ascertained by reference to a measure of the quantity of those particular goods.

If the non-injurious price of goods of that kind as ascertained or last ascertained for the purposes of the dumping duty notice is less than the normal value of goods of that kind as so ascertained, or last so ascertained, a lesser amount of interim dumping duty is fixed, pursuant to subsection 8(5A) of the Customs Tariff (Anti Dumping) Act 1975, I have had regard to the desirability of fixing a lesser amount of duty such that the sum of:

- (i) the export price of goods of that kind as so ascertained, or last so ascertained, and
- (ii) that lesser duty,

does not exceed that non-injurious price.

This notice applies to the goods and like goods entered for home consumption on and after 6 October 2004.
