Commonwealth of Australia

Parliamentary Service Act 1999

Determination Number 1 of 2007

Parliamentary Librarian Remuneration and Other Conditions of Employment

Pursuant to section 38E of the Parliamentary Service Act 1999, after having sought and taken into account the advice of the Remuneration Tribunal, we hereby determine the remuneration and other conditions of employment of the Parliamentary Librarian as set out hereunder, with effect from the date of this Determination.

Part 1. Interpretation

In this Determination:

“Base salary” means the amount specified as base salary in clause 2.1 of this Determination.

“Benefits” means all non-monetary benefits provided at the employer’s expense to or on behalf of the Librarian as a benefit, including the value of a vehicle (refer to Part 4), the value attributed to the employer’s superannuation contributions (refer to clause 3.3) and any other benefits received by way of remuneration packaging (refer to clause 2.3).

“Employer” means the Commonwealth and includes any person authorised to exercise powers, perform acts, grant approvals or give directions for, or on behalf of, the Commonwealth.

“the Department” means the Department of Parliamentary Services.

“the Librarian” means the Parliamentary Librarian.

“the Secretary” means the Secretary of the Department of Parliamentary Services.

“Total remuneration” means the amount specified as total remuneration in clause 2.1 of this Determination, representing the value of salary and benefits but not including the value of facilities provided as business support in Part 5, official travel specified in Part 6, leave specified in Parts 7 to 10 and compensation for early termination of appointment specified in Part 11.

Part 2 Remuneration and related matters

2.1 The Librarian will be eligible for base salary and total remuneration as set out below:

- (a) Base salary at the rate of $156,100 per annum; and
- (b) Total remuneration of $214,000.

2.2 The amounts set out in clause 2.1 are to be adjusted annually from 1 July 2007 according to the annual movement in the maximum Total Remuneration of the Principal Executive Office (PEO) Bands determined by the Remuneration Tribunal in accordance with Remuneration Tribunal Determination 2005/19 or any successor determination.

2.3 Subject to clause 3.4, the Librarian may elect to receive the benefit of total remuneration as salary or a combination of salary and benefits, in accordance with the policies and procedures on salary packaging in the Department.

Part 3 Superannuation

3.1 The Librarian will continue to be entitled to superannuation benefits under the Superannuation Act 1990, the Superannuation (Productivity Benefit) Act 1988 and the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992.

3.2 Regardless of anything else in this Determination, but subject to any provisions of the Acts mentioned in clause 3.1 concerning the recognition of prior salary, salary for superannuation purposes will be base salary.

3.3 The Librarian's total remuneration will be taken to include the employer's superannuation contributions made in respect of the Librarian. The value of the employer's contribution will be taken to be 15% of superannuation salary.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything else in this Determination, the value attributable by virtue of clause 3.3 to the employer's superannuation contribution is a non-salary component of total remuneration and may not be the subject of an election to take an equivalent amount of money instead.

Part 4. Official vehicle

4.1 The Librarian's total remuneration will be taken to include the value of a vehicle component comprising a fully maintained vehicle provided by the Commonwealth in accordance with the Executive Vehicle Scheme in force from time to time in the Department for SES employees, and access to parking.

4.2 Where the Librarian elects to receive a Commonwealth-provided vehicle, the value of the vehicle component of the Librarian's total remuneration is to be the actual cost to the Department, including any fringe benefits taxation paid.

Part 5 Business support

5.1 The Librarian is entitled to the provision by the Department of home computing facilities, including a broadband Internet connection, reimbursement of the cost of an Internet Service Provider, and other office facilities necessary at his or her residence for the efficient conduct of business. Such provision includes incidental private use of those facilities.

5.2 The Librarian is entitled to domestic airline lounge membership at Commonwealth expense.

5.3 The Librarian is entitled to business support by way of newspapers, journals, periodicals and professional association membership.

Part 6. Official travel

6.1 The Librarian is entitled to travelling allowances and conditions for travel on official business within Australia and internationally in accordance with the provisions, and at the Tier 2 rate, as determined from time to time by the Remuneration Tribunal in relation to full-time public office holders. In making travel arrangements, the Librarian should comply with the travel-related administrative guidelines in place for SES employees in the Department.

6.2 The Librarian may be entitled to be accompanied by a spouse or partner at Commonwealth expense for purposes related to official business when travelling within Australia or overseas in accordance with this Determination. Such accompanied travel may occur only when the Presiding

Officers agree that, given the purpose of the travel, it is demonstrably in the interest of the Parliament for the Librarian to be accompanied by the spouse or partner.

Part 7. Annual leave

7.1 There will accrue to the Librarian annual leave at the rate of 20 days per annum, which will count as service for all purposes. The taking of leave is subject to approval by the Presiding Officers, who may delegate their power to approve leave to the Secretary. Subject to this Determination, leave will be administered in accordance with annual leave policies applying to SES employees of the Department.

7.2 The Librarian's annual leave credits include any remaining annual leave credits accrued either through prior service in the Australian Public Service or the ACT Government Service or through employment in a Commonwealth authority that, in either case, ceased not more than two months prior to being appointed Librarian.

7.3 In respect of any unused annual leave credit for which the Librarian is entitled to payment in lieu on cessation of employment, the rate of remuneration used for calculating the entitlement is base salary.

Part 8. Personal leave

8.1 The Librarian is entitled to personal leave, and may use this entitlement at full or half pay, to accommodate personal illness or injury, to care for a family member or to meet family responsibilities of an emergency or unscheduled nature.

8.2 The Librarian is entitled to a personal leave credit of 19 days per year to be administered in accordance with the relevant leave policies applying to SES employees of the Department. The Librarian's absence of three days or more using personal leave must be authorised by the Presiding Officers, who may delegate their power to authorise leave to the Secretary.

8.3 In addition to the personal leave entitlement accruing as specified above, the Librarian's entitlement to personal leave (however described) accrued either through prior service in the Australian Public Service or the ACT Government Service, or through employment in a Commonwealth authority that, in either case, ceased not more than two months prior to being appointed Librarian, will be recognised as if accrued as Librarian.

Part 9. Other leave

9. The Secretary may grant other leave to the Librarian, with or without pay. Leave without pay does not count as service for any purpose unless the Secretary determines otherwise.

Part 10. Long service leave

10. The Librarian is entitled to long service leave benefits under the Long Service Leave (Commonwealth Employees) Act 1973.

Part 11. Compensation for early termination of appointment

11.1 If the appointment of the Librarian is terminated under the provisions of the Parliamentary Service Act 1999 for reasons other than physical or mental incapacity, misbehaviour or unsatisfactory service before the expiration of the term of appointment and the Commonwealth has not made the Librarian an offer of suitable alternative employment, the Librarian will, upon termination, be entitled to be paid one-third of one month's remuneration applying at the date of termination from the office, for each full month of service forgone, subject to:

- (a) a minimum payment of four months of the superannuation salary applicable at that date; and
- (b) a maximum payment of twelve months of the superannuation salary applicable at that date.

11.2 In this Determination, suitable alternative employment includes such employment with the Commonwealth, the administration of a Territory, a public statutory corporation referred to in paragraph 3(4)(da) of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973 or an incorporated company, all the stock or shares in the capital of which is, or are, beneficially owned by the Commonwealth or by a public statutory corporation.

11.3 Where the Librarian serves the full term of appointment, no entitlement to a payment under this Part arises.

Part 12 Repeal of previous Determination

12. Determination No. 1 of 2005, made under section 38E of the Parliamentary Service Act 1999, is repealed.

REPATRIATION MEDICAL AUTHORITY

DECLARATION UNDER SUBSECTION 196B(9)
OF THE VETERANS' ENTITLEMENTS ACT 1986

The Repatriation Medical Authority, under subsection 196B(9) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (the Act), makes the following declaration in respect of an investigation to review some of the contents of a Statement of Principles in force under the Act in respect of tungsten as a factor in soft tissue sarcoma. Notice of this investigation was gazetted on 2 May 2007 in the Australian Government Notices Gazette.

DECLARATION & REASON

The Repatriation Medical Authority (the Authority) declares that it does not propose to amend the Statements of Principles concerning soft tissue sarcoma, being Instrument Nos. 13 and 14 of 2006, for the reason that the new sound medical-scientific evidence available to the Authority is not sufficient to justify an amendment to the Statements of Principles already determined in respect of soft tissue sarcoma.

NHMRC Program Grants

Call for Applications for Funding to commence in 2009

The NHMRC's Program Grants scheme aims to provide support for teams of researchers, to pursue broadly based collaborative research activity. The support provided for successful applicants is for the research team, to support the team's broad research theme.

Successful applicants are expected to:

- contribute new knowledge at a leading international level in important areas of health and medical research;
- develop novel ideas and approaches;
- tackle problems for which longer term stable funding is essential;
- develop training and career development opportunities within the team; and
- facilitate collaborative use of specialised facilities or expertise.

The Program Grants scheme is available for all research approaches that are relevant to better health (eg biomedical, clinical, public health and health services research).

This call for applications for Program Grants funding has been provided by the NHMRC to obviate the need to submit simultaneous Project Grant applications, thereby reducing the time applicants expend writing funding applications.

Applications are open to new teams and current Program Grant holders in their 3rd, 4th or 5th year in 2008.

Funding for successful applicants will commence in January 2009. A further call for funding to commence from January 2009 will be available in 2008. Applicants who intend to apply in either of these two rounds are advised to refer to the NHMRC Program Grants timeline which can be found at:

<http://www.nhmrc.gov.au/funding/apply/granttype/programs/index.htm>

This document broadly outlines the implications of applying in either of the two rounds.

Applications Close	24 August 2007
Interviews	29 – 30 October 2007

THE AUSTRALIAN ANTARCTIC MEDAL

(21 June 2007)

Miss Sharon Rae Labudda

Kumbia Qld 4610

For outstanding service in support of Australian Antarctic expeditions

Occupation In Antarctica:

Senior Aircraft Ground Support Officer, Davis Station

Service in Antarctica:

Summer 2006/07

Summer-Winter-Summer 2004/06

Summer-Winter-Summer 2002/04.

Aircraft Ground Support Officer (AGSO) positions were created coincident with the introduction of station based, fixed wing aircraft in the 2003/04 season. The AGSO works closely with aircraft and helicopter flight crews and engineers to assist in the day to day operations, principally ensuring fuel is available, cargo and passengers are organised and ready to go, and documentation such as weights, dangerous goods and passenger and cargo manifests comply with the regulations.

Miss Labudda was the first AGSO employed and has been instrumental in the establishment of this position to air operations in Antarctica. She has developed and implemented procedures and processes that have greatly enhanced the efficiency and safety of aviation operations in the Australian Antarctic programme. She has established many work standards and practices that are used in the air transport system in Antarctica. She has always looked for and found more efficient and better ways to achieve programme goals. For instance, she recommended the use of a Kasseboehrer snow groomer for constructing and maintaining snow runways. This allowed virtually all of the planned November-December 2006 fixed wing flight programme to be completed despite starting almost a month late. Miss Labudda demonstrates the professional capability and personal qualities found in an outstanding Antarctic expeditioner.

She has consistently displayed qualities that contribute to station life in a positive way and has done this with commitment, dedication and an unfailing willingness to work long hours and always with a positive outlook. She has also shown a willingness and skill in imparting her significant knowledge to less experienced expeditioners and has shown empathy and sensitivity in supporting colleagues through difficult periods.

Miss Labudda's consistent effort in everything she does has made a significant contribution towards ensuring the success of the intra-continental aviation programme. Miss Labudda, through her admirable work ethic and overriding desire to do whatever was necessary to ensure success, has consistently gone far beyond what might normally be expected.
