EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Public Service Act 1999

Public Service Commissioner's Amendment Directions 2007 (No.1)

Subsection 11(1) of the Public Service Act 1999 (the Act) provides that the Public Service Commissioner (the Commissioner) must issue directions in relation to each of the APS Values. Subsection 15(4) of the Act provides that procedures for determining whether an APS employee has breached the Code of Conduct must be set out in the Commissioner's Directions. Section 36 of the Act provides that the Commissioner must issue directions about employment matters relating to SES employees.

Section 20 of the Act provides Agency Heads, on behalf of the Commonwealth, with all the rights, duties and powers of an employer in respect of APS employees in the Agency.

Chapter 2 of the Public Service Commissioner's Directions 1999 (the Principal Directions) prescribes the minimum requirements that an Agency Head must meet to uphold and promote the APS Values as detailed under section 10 of the Act. Chapter 4 of the Principal Directions relates specifically to merit in employment and includes the requirement to advertise in the Gazette employment opportunities which are ongoing, or non-ongoing (temporary) for a period of greater than 12 months.

The purpose of the amending Directions is to enable matters covered by the Principal Directions to be notified only in an electronic version of the Gazette, rather than a paper version of the Gazette as is currently necessary. While there is no specific legislative requirement for a paper Gazette, this has been the historically accepted means of publication. The amending Directions ensure that there is no doubt that publication of the matters required by the Principal Directions in the new electronic Gazette satisfies the legal requirement for Gazette notification.

Each Thursday, the Australian Public Service Commission publishes the Australian Public Service Gazette (APS Gazette), which includes the range of matters required to be gazetted, including employment opportunities. The bulk of the APS Gazette contains job vacancies and promotions. For some years the APS Gazette material has also been available electronically at the www.psgazette.gov.au website. This electronic version of the APS Gazette has been redeveloped and the new website will operate from 9 August 2007 as part of the APSjobs portal which will also be launched on that day.

There has been a substantial decline in the utilisation of the paper-based APS Gazette, with only a very small number of subscribers now (mostly Commonwealth agencies). The electronic version is available on-line and provides better access for individuals, and is the overwhelming form of accessing the information. The publication of the paper-based APS Gazette will cease after the 2 August 2007 issue, so as to coincide with the implementation of the new version of the electronic APS Gazette, on 9 August 2007. A commencement date of 8 August 2007 ensures it is clear cut that no paper version is needed from 9 August 2007. This will not affect the publication of various other paper Gazettes produced by other Australian Government agencies.

There are also provisions in the Act which require gazettal of some matters (such as statutory office holder terms and conditions) and these will continue to be published in a paper Gazette administered by the Attorney-General's Department.

In addition to amendments to the Principal Directions, the Public Service Regulations 1999 have been amended (effective from the same date) to refer to the electronic APS Employment Gazette as these prescribe the requirement to notify certain employment decisions in the APS Gazette, including engagements, movements, promotions and terminations of employment of employees.

The Directions are disallowable non-legislative instruments for the purposes for the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

Details of the amending Directions are set out in the Attachment.

Consultation: All APS agencies were advised that it was intended to discontinue the paper APS Gazette. No agency has raised issues.

ATTACHMENTDetails of the Public Service Commissioner's Amendment Directions 2007 (No.1)

Clause 1 names the Directions as the Public Service Commissioner's Amendment Directions 2007 (No.1).

Clause 2 provides that the Directions will commence on 8 August 2007.

Clause 3 provides that Schedule 1 amends the Public Service Commissioner's Directions 1999 (the Principal Directions).

Items 1 and 18 to 21 of Schedule 1 substitute references to the 'Gazette' in the Principal Directions with references to the 'electronic APS Employment Gazette'.

Items 3, 6, 7, 8, 10, 13, 16 and 17 of Schedule 1 amend the clauses by adding a reference to the 'electronic APS Employment Gazette'.

Item 7 of Schedule 1 improves the drafting of the clause; there is no substantive change to the intent of the clause.

Items 2, 4, 5, 9, 11, 12, 14 and 15 of Schedule 1 refer to the arrangements for gazettal of certain employment decisions prior to and after 8 August 2007.

Item 22 of Schedule 1 amends the list of persons included as APS employees for subclauses 4.2(5) and 4.6A(6) of the Principal Directions. Reference to a staff member of the Australian Trade Commission has been deleted, as this organisation now employs staff under the Public Service Act 1999. Reference to the 'electronic APS employment Gazette' has also been included in the schedule.

Items 23 and 24 of Schedule 1 amend the Dictionary to the Principal Directions by inserting a definition of electronic APS Employment Gazette. The definition of similar employment is also amended to refer to the change to the electronic APS Employment Gazette.

Amendment of the National Capital Plan
Draft Amendment 67
Provisions for Mobile Home Park –
Blocks 6 & 8 Section 97 and Block 17 Section 102 Symonston

The purpose of this Draft Amendment is to allow Mobile Home Park to be developed on Blocks 6 & 8 Section 97 and Block 17 (previously part Block 13) Section 102 Symonston only.

The land use policy for Blocks 6 & 8 Section 97 and Block 17 Symonston is Broadacre Areas under the current National Capital Plan. A Caravan Park/Camping Ground for temporary accommodation is a permitted use but does not include Mobile Home Park which allows for the accommodation of mobile homes or caravans even if they are permanent.

Blocks 6 & 8 Symonston are long established caravan parks (with Mobile Home Park) that existed prior to the National Capital Plan coming into effect on 21 January 1990. A Mobile Home Park on these blocks is therefore already permitted under section 13 of the Australian Capital Territory (Planning and Land Management) Act 1988 which recognises previously existing uses during the term of the estate. For these blocks the Draft Amendment formalises Mobile Home Park as a permitted use in the National Capital Plan.

For Block 17 Section 102 Symonston, the Draft Amendment, once approved will add Mobile Home Park to the range of permitted uses on the block and give the ACT Government the opportunity to locate an additional mobile home park in the area.

Draft Amendment 67 of the National Capital Plan has been prepared in accordance with sections 15(1) and 23 of the Australian Capital Territory (Planning and Land Management) Act 1988 and is now available for public inspection and comment. Background information on the proposal is included with the Draft Amendment and is available on the Authority's website www.nationalcapital.gov.au.
