ACMA may decide that 41(2) of the Act applies to a licensee if it is satisfied that allowing the licensee to provide or continue to provide a commercial broadcasting service under a licence would lead to a significant risk of: (a) an offence against the Act or the regulations being committed; (b) or a breach of the conditions of the licence occurring.

In deciding whether the sub-section applies, ACMA is required by sub-section 41(3) of the Act, to take into account: (a) the business record of the company; and (b) the company's record in situations requiring trust and candour; and (c) the business record of the chief executive and each director and secretary of the applicant; and (d) the record in situations requiring trust and candour of each such person; and (e) whether the company, or a person referred to in paragraph (c) or (d), has been convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations.

Some public notifications on the Internet and in the Gazette relating to the processing of referrals for approval under Chapter 4 of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 may occasionally be missed in processing by the Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts, or may not meet timeframes for notification. The Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts has implemented systems and ongoing quality assurance procedures to minimise any risk of missing a notification within the required timeframe. Where a missed notification is identified the practice will be to notify these even though the timeframe for notification has lapsed. This will ensure that the history of notifications for each referral is available to the public. The Department of the Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts regrets any inconvenience that may be caused by a missed notification. Please note that late notifications have not affected subsequent processing of referrals or assessments and they do not affect decisions made.

COMMISSIONER OF TAXATION

The Commissioner of Taxation, Michael D'Ascenzo, gives notice of the following Rulings, copies of which can be obtained from Branches of the Australian Taxation Office or at <http://law.ato.gov.au>.

NOTICE OF RULINGS
Ruling Number	Subject	Brief Description
GSTR 2009/1	Goods and services tax: general law partnerships and the margin scheme	This Ruling explains how the margin scheme in Division 75 of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 applies to general law partnerships and its partners. This Ruling applies both before and after its date of issue.
GSTR 2009/2	Goods and services tax: partitioning of land	This Ruling considers the goods and services tax consequences of the partitioning of real property among joint tenants or tenants in common. This Ruling applies both before and after its date of issue.
GSTD 2009/1	Goods and services tax: is a supply by way of an in specie distribution of an asset that is applied in an enterprise carried on by a discretionary trust to a beneficiary of the trust made 'in the course or furtherance of' the trust's enterprise?	This Determination concludes that a supply by way of an in specie distribution of an asset that is applied in an enterprise carried on by a discretionary trust to a beneficiary of the trust is made 'in the course or furtherance of' the trust's enterprise. This Ruling applies both before and after its date of issue.
SMSFR 2009/2	Self Managed Superannuation Funds: the meaning of 'borrow money' or 'maintain an existing borrowing of money' for the purposes of section 67 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993	This Ruling explains the meaning of the phrases 'borrow money' or 'maintain an existing borrowing of money' for the purposes of section 67 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SISA) and also explains how the application of the meaning of these terms to the facts of an arrangement determines whether a self managed superannuation fund trustee has contravened the general prohibition on borrowing in subsection 67(1) of the SISA. This Ruling applies to years of income commencing both before and after its date of issue.

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWALS
Ruling Number	Subject	Brief Description
MT 2007/1	Miscellaneous taxes: does paragraph 284-220(1)(e) of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 apply to increase the base penalty amount applicable to a subsection 284-75(3) penalty where the entity was liable to the same penalty for a previous accounting period?	MT 2007/1 is withdrawn with effect from today. MT 2007/1 concluded that where penalty is imposed under subsection 284-75(3) of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (TAA) for an accounting period, paragraph 284-220(1)(e) of the TAA applies to increase the base penalty amount by 20% if a penalty was imposed under that subsection for a previous accounting period. Due to legislative changes this Ruling is no longer current and is therefore withdrawn.
GSTD 2003/2	Goods and services tax: are there GST consequences when a partner in a partnership takes goods held as trading stock for private or domestic use?	GSTD 2003/2 is withdrawn with effect from today. GSTD 2003/2 concluded that the GST consequences when a partner in a partnership takes goods held as trading stock for private or domestic use under Division 130 of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (GST Act) does not involve a supply made in the course or furtherance of an enterprise being carried on and Division 72 of the GST Act has no operation. This Determination is withdrawn as the Australian Taxation Office has revised its view and it is inconsistent with other rulings setting out the view as to when a supply made by a partnership to a partner will be made in the course or furtherance of the enterprise carried on by the partnership. This Determination is replaced by GSTD 2009/D1.

REDISTRIBUTION OF FEDERAL ELECTORAL BOUNDARIES

IN NEW SOUTH WALES

PUBLIC SUGGESTIONS AND COMMENTS

In accordance with section 64 of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (Electoral Act), the Electoral Commissioner invites any interested person or organisation to make written suggestions and comments on changes to the boundaries and names of electoral divisions in New South Wales for the House of Representatives.

WHY A REDISTRIBUTION?

A redistribution of federal electoral boundaries in New South Wales is due as a result of changes in population. On 19 February 2009, in accordance with section 59 of the Electoral Act, the Electoral Commission directed that a redistribution commence. New South Wales will be entitled to 48 members in the House of Representatives at the next general election. New South Wales currently has 49 members.

WHO IS ON THE REDISTRIBUTION COMMITTEE?

The Electoral Commission will appoint a Redistribution Committee for New South Wales. The Electoral Act requires that the committee consist of the Electoral Commissioner, the Australian Electoral Officer for New South Wales and two senior state officials.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS FOR A REDISTRIBUTION

In making its proposed redistribution, the Redistribution Committee is bound by section 66 of the Electoral Act. The number of electors in each proposed division must not deviate by more than 10% above or below the enrolment quota for a division. The quota of electors for each division in New South Wales was determined by the Electoral Commissioner as at 19 February 2009 to be 94,353. At 16 July 2012, the number of electors enrolled in each electoral division is not to be less than 96.5% or more than 103.5% of the average divisional enrolment for the state at that time.

Section 66 of the Electoral Act also provides, in part, that the Redistribution Committee is required to:

"give due consideration, in relation to each proposed Electoral Division, to:

- i) community of interests within the proposed Electoral Division, including economic, social and regional interests;*
- (ii) means of communication and travel within the proposed Electoral Division;*
- (iv) the physical features and area of the proposed Electoral Division; and*
- (v) the boundaries of existing Divisions in the State or Territory"*

Consideration of existing boundaries is subordinate to the other considerations set out above.

THE REDISTRIBUTION PROCESS

The redistribution is carried out in accordance with the Electoral Act. The following steps briefly outline the various stages of the redistribution process.

Step 1 - Public suggestions

Any interested person or organisation who wishes to make suggestions relating to the boundaries or names of divisions, has until 6.00 pm Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST) on Friday 1 May 2009 to lodge them in writing with the Redistribution Committee at the address outlined in the Guidelines For Public Suggestions section below. Suggestions received after the prescribed lodgement times cannot be accepted.

Persons or organisations making suggestions are requested, where practical, to ensure any maps are A4 size to facilitate copying.

Step 2 - Comments on the public suggestions

The suggestions will be available for public inspection from Monday 4 May 2009 at the office of the Australian Electoral Officer for New South Wales Level 3, Roden Cutler House, 24 Campbell St, HAYMARKET, and on the Australian Electoral Commission's (AEC) website (www.aec.gov.au). Any comments on the suggestions must be lodged in writing with the Redistribution Committee by 6.00 pm AEST on Friday 15 May 2009. Comments received after the prescribed lodgement time cannot be accepted.

Step 3 - Redistribution proposal

After considering the written suggestions and comments, the Redistribution Committee will propose a redistribution of federal electoral boundaries for New South Wales. Maps showing the proposed boundaries and names of divisions will then be published in selected newspapers, on the AEC website and exhibited at all AEC offices in New South Wales, AEC State Offices in each state and the Northern Territory and the AEC National Office in Canberra.

Step 4 - Objections to the proposed redistribution

Objections to the proposed redistribution must then be lodged within 28 days. There is a further 14-day period for lodgement of written comments on any objections.

Step 5 - Objections considered by the augmented Electoral Commission

The augmented Electoral Commission for New South Wales considers all objections and comments. The augmented Electoral Commission comprises the members of the Redistribution Committee plus the Chairman of the AEC and the non-judicial Commissioner (currently the Australian Statistician).

Step 6 - The second redistribution proposal

After it has considered all objections and comments, the augmented Electoral Commission will make its own proposed redistribution.

Step 7 - Further objections

If the augmented Electoral Commission's proposed redistribution is significantly different from the Redistribution Committee's proposal, the augmented Electoral Commission will invite further objections.

Step 8 - Final determination

After considering all submissions the augmented Electoral Commission will make a final determination of boundaries and names of the electoral divisions for New South Wales.

GUIDELINES FOR PUBLIC SUGGESTIONS

Written suggestions relating to the redistribution in New South Wales must be lodged by 6.00 pm AEST on Friday 1 May 2009 with the Redistribution Committee, in person or by mail or email at:

24 Campbell St

Telephone: 1300 391 039, or (02) 9375 6334
